2015 Daily Journal Planner David:

2015 Daily Journal and Planner - DAVID LightSide LightSide, 2014-10-21 As functional as it is unique our 2015 Daily Journal Planner is a powerful tool ready and able to help you manage and accomplish the many tasks and responsibilities of your daily life This generously sized book is personalized and contains dated entries for each day of 2015 allowing 15 lines of space for writing each day two days per page Full page calendars for both 2015 and 2016 are provided for viewing the years at a glance Full page calendars are also included for each of the twelve months in 2015 with space for writing your own special dates For each month a page for goals financial matters and notes is provided making it your life s organizer Perfect for use as a journal or daily planner for tracking goals work hours vehicle mileage tasks purchases diet weight loss or any of the other things that fill each of your days 218 pages 8 5 x 11 White Sand Black Beach Bush, Gregory W, 2016-07-20 Florida Historical Society Harry T and Harriette V Moore Award Florida Book Awards Silver Medal for Florida Nonfiction In May 1945 activists staged a wade in at a whites only beach in Miami protesting the Jim Crow era laws that denied blacks access to recreational waterfront areas Pressured by protestors in this first postwar civil rights demonstration the Dade County Commission ultimately designated the difficult to access Virginia Key as a beach for African Americans The beach became vitally important to the community offering a place to congregate with family and friends and to enjoy the natural wonders of the area It was also a tangible victory in the continuing struggle for civil rights in public space As Florida beaches were later desegregated many viewed Virginia Key as symbolic of an oppressive past and ceased to patronize it At the same time white leaders responded to desegregation by decreasing attention to and funding for public spaces in general The beach was largely ignored and eventually shut down In White Sand Black Beach historian and longtime Miami activist Gregory Bush recounts this unique story and the current state of the public waterfront in Miami Recently environmentalists community leaders and civil rights activists have come together to revitalize the beach and Bush highlights the potential to stimulate civic engagement in public planning processes While local governments defer to booster and lobbying interests pushing for destination casinos and boat shows Bush calls for a land ethic that connects people to the local environment He seeks to shift the local political divisions beyond established interest groups and neoliberalism to a broader vision that simplifies human needs and reconnects people to fundamental values such as health A place of fellowship relaxation and interaction with nature this beach Bush argues offers a common ground of hope for a better future Economic Development for Everyone Mark M. Miller, 2017-05-09 How do we create employment grow businesses and build greater economic resilience in our low income communities How do we create economic development for everyone everywhere including rural towns inner city neighborhoods aging suburbs and regions such as Appalachia American Indian reservations the Mexican border and the Mississippi Delta and not just in elite communities Economic Development for Everyone collects organizes and reviews much of the current research available on creating economic development in low income communities Part I offers an overview of the harsh realities facing low income communities in the US today their many economic and social challenges debates on whether to try reviving local economies vs relocating residents and current trends in economic development that emphasize high tech industry and high levels of human capital Part II organizes the sprawling literature of applied economic development research into a practical framework of five dynamic dimensions empower your residents begin with basic education enhance your community build on existing assets encourage your entrepreneurs diversify your economy and sustain your development This book assembled and presented in a unified framework will be invaluable for students and new researchers of economic development in low income communities and will offer new perspectives for established researchers professional economic developers and planners and public officials Development practitioners and community leaders will also find new ideas and opportunities along with a broad view on how the many complex parts of economic development interconnect

The Hard State, Soft City of Singapore Simone Shu-Yeng Chung, Mike Douglass, 2015-10-01 With Singapore serving as the subject of exploration The Hard State Soft City of Singapore explores the purview of imaginative representations of the city Alongside the physical structures and associated practices that make up our lived environment and conceptualized space engineered into material form by bureaucrats experts and commercial interests a perceptual layer of space is conjured out of people s everyday life experiences While such imaginative projections may not be as tangible as its functional designations they are nonetheless equally vital and palpable The richness of its inhabitants memories aspirations and meaningful interpretations challenges the reduction of Singapore as a Generic City Taking the imaginative field as the point of departure the forms and modes of intellectual and creative articulations of Singapore s urban condition probe the resilience of cities and the people who reside in them through the images they convey or evoke as a means for collective expressions of human agency in placemaking

Taking Chances Karen M. O'Neill, Daniel J. Van Abs, 2016-06-03 Humanity is deeply committed to living along the world s shores but a catastrophic storm like Sandy which took hundreds of lives and caused many billions of dollars in damages shines a bright light at how costly and vulnerable life on a shoreline can be Taking Chances offers a wide ranging exploration of the diverse challenges of Sandy and asks if this massive event will really change how coastal living and development is managed Bringing together leading researchers including biologists urban planners utilities experts and climatologists among others Taking Chances illuminates reactions to the dangers revealed by Sandy Focusing on New Jersey New York and other hard hit areas the contributors explore whether Hurricane Sandy has indeed transformed our perceptions of coastal hazards if we have made radically new plans in response to Sandy and what we think should be done over the long run to improve coastal resilience Surprisingly one essay notes that while a large majority of New Jerseyans identified Sandy with climate change and favored carefully assessing the likelihood of damage from future storms before rebuilding the Shore their political leaders quickly poured millions into reconstruction Indeed much here is disquieting One contributor points out that investors scared off from further investments on the shore are quickly replaced by new investors sustaining or increasing the overall human exposure to risk Likewise a study of the Gowanus Canal area of Brooklyn shows that even after Sandy swamped the area with toxic flood waters plans to convert abandoned industrial lots around the canal into high density condominiums went on undeterred By contrast utilities emergency officials and others who routinely make long term plans have changed operations in response to the storm and provide examples of adaptation in the face of climate change Will Sandy be a tipping point in coastal policy debates or simply dismissed as a once in a century anomaly This thought provoking collection of essays in Taking Chances makes an important contribution to this debate Canadian Almanac and Directory 2017 House Canada Grey,2016-11 The Canadian Almanac Directory is the most complete source of Canadian information available cultural professional and financial institutions legislative governmental judicial and educational organizations Canada s authoritative sourcebook for almost 160 years the Canadian Almanac Directory gives you access to almost 100 000 names and addresses of contacts throughout the network of Canadian institutions Urban Infrastructure Joseph Heathcott,Jonathan Soffer,Rae Zimmerman,2022-10-11 Urban Infrastructure creates space for an encounter between historians humanists and social scientists who seek new methodological approaches to the history of urban infrastructure It draws on recent work across history anthropology science and technology studies geography resilience sustainability and other disciplines to explore the social effects of infrastructure The volume rejects narrow conceptions of infrastructure history as only the history of public works and instead expands the definition to all business enterprises and public bodies that provide the goods and services essential for the day to day lives of most people Essays examine traditional artifacts such as roads highways and waterworks as well as nontraditional topics like regimes of heating and cooling the processing and distribution of food and even the metaphysics of electromagnetic infrastructure Contributors reveal both the material grounding of urban social relations and the social life of material infrastructure In the end they show that infrastructure profoundly reshapes urban life even as residents fight to reshape infrastructure to their own ends Supporting Shrinkage Michael P. Johnson,Justin B. Hollander,Eliza W. Kinsey,George R. Chichirau,2021-08-01 Supporting Shrinkage describes a new approach to citizen engaged community focused planning methods and technologies for cities and regions facing decline disinvestment shrinkage and social and physical distress The volume evaluates the benefits and costs of a wide range of analytic approaches for designing policy and planning interventions for shrinking cities and distressed communities These include collaborative planning social media civic technology game design analytics decision modeling and decision support and spatial analysis The authors present case studies of three US cities addressing shrinkage and decline with a focus on issues of social justice democratization of knowledge and local empowerment Proposed as a solution is an approach that puts community engagement and empowerment at the center combined with data and technology innovations The authors argue that decisions informed by qualitative and quantitative data and analytic methods implemented through accessible and affordable technologies and based on notions of social impact and social justice can enable residents to play a leading role in the positive transformation of shrinking cities and distressed communities The Narrative Turn in Urban Planning

Lieven Ameen, 2020-11-15 Narratives in the context of urban planning matter profoundly Planning theory and practice have taken an increasing interest in the role and power of narrative and yet there is no comprehensive study of how narrative and concepts from narrative and literary theory more broadly can enrich planning and policy The Narrative Turn in Urban Planning addresses this gap by defining key concepts such as story narrative and plot against a planning backdrop and by drawing up a functional typology of different planning narratives In two extended case studies from the planning of the Helsinki waterfront it applies the narrative concepts and theories to a broad range of texts and practices considering ways toward a more conscious and contextualized future urban planning Questioning what is meant when we speak of narratives in urban planning and what typologies we can draw up it presents a threefold taxonomy of narratives within a planning framework This book will serve as an important reference text for upper level students and researchers interested in urban planning Planning, 2007 The Georgia Journal of International and Comparative Law, 2014 The Municipal Journal

, 1964 The Municipal and Public Services Journal, 1966 Municipal Journal, Public Works Engineer and Contractors' Guide, 1965 Journals of the House of Commons Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1980
