Rules for Writers With 2009 MLA Update / 50 Essays Diana Hacker, Samuel Cohen, 2009-06-19 Next Generation Genres Jessica Singer Early, 2022-11-29 Students need updated writing genres and a real reason to write. Evolutions in technology and connectivity have brought about significant changes in the ways writing is produced and shared. Yet despite monumental shifts in the practice of writing how we teach writing has remained largely static. What we need is a new set of genres for writing instruction genres that will speak to students who are already immersed in rich and multifaceted literacy practices through social media gaming and new technologies. Jessica S. Early's Next Generation Genres provides an alternative framework for a secondary writing curriculum that places a central emphasis on helping students gain the experience they need to write with confidence in academic and civic life. If your students' eyes glaze over when they face a standard essay assignment perhaps it's time to let them try writing an infographic or a podcast. Periodical Essay in Modernity R. Eric Tippin, 2025-03-31 This book takes seriously the late Victorian periodical essay treating it with the same formal care that another study might give to Thomas Hardy's poetry or Henry James's prose. It also attends to the essay's periodical context advertisements news serial publication material transience and burying ubiquity. It challenges the distinction between serious literature and mere articles that appear in dailies weeklies and monthlies. And then it argues that to understand the periodical essay between 1880 and 1920 is to understand the transitions of that period more clearly from belief to doubt from country to city from thick time to clock time. The periodical essay is implicated in all these transitions. In making this argument this book makes special reference to three authors Oscar Wilde G. K. Chesterton and Virginia Woolf. All three command very different audiences and this book suggests an association between the three as periodical essayists
