50 Essays Samuel Cohen Answers:

Periodical Essay in Modernity R. Eric Tippin, 2025-03-31 This book takes seriously the late Victorian periodical essay treating it with the same formal care that another study might give to Thomas Hardy's poetry or Henry James's prose. It also attends to the essay's periodical context: advertisements, news, serial publication, material transience and burying ubiquity. It challenges the distinction between serious literature and mere articles that appear in dailies, weeklies and monthlies. And then it argues that to understand the periodical essay between 1880 and 1920 is to understand the transitions of that period more clearly: from belief to doubt, from country to city, from thick time to clock time. The periodical essay is implicated in all these transitions. In making this argument, this book makes special reference to three authors: Oscar Wilde, G. K. Chesterton and Virginia Woolf. All three command very different audiences, and this book suggests an association between the three as periodical essayists.

Maurice Samuel Alan T. Levenson, 2022-08-02 This short intellectual biography reassesses one of the premier Jewish humanists of the mid twentieth century: the Rumanian born, English educated American belletrist Maurice Samuel. Although he spoke in a staccato Midlands accent, Samuel left Manchester, England, in 1913, joined the American Army, served in military intelligence in World War I and became a United States citizen. Samuel resettled his family in Palestine in 1929, then returned to the US and spent his most creative years in New York City. A diaspora intellectual or rootless cosmopolitan, as Alan Levenson describes him, Samuel made an indelible mark on many features of contemporary Jewish thought and culture.

The Booklover's Answer, 1962

Forming the Critical Mind James Engell, 1989 James Engell has prepared the first broad treatment of eighteenth and early nineteenth century British criticism to appear in a generation, presenting the views of scores of writers on a variety of questions, many of which remain live issues today. While offering major reevaluations of Dryden, Hume and Johnson, Engell demonstrates that eighteenth century criticism cannot be represented by just a few major critics or by generalizations about Augustan taste, neoclassical rules or common sense. He presents a complex and highly varied body of theoretical writing and practical application by dozens of critics, including Rymer, Addison, Welsted, Ramsay, Hurd, Gerard, Newbery, Campbell, Blair, Beattie, Jeffrey and Hazlitt. He also analyzes the continued relevance of their critical work, drawing connections with modern writers such as Eliot, Frye, Saussure, Barthes, Culler, Bakhtin and L. vi Strauss. Engell concludes with a stimulating essay on the nature and function of the critical process itself. For students and scholars conversant with modern critical theory, Forming the Critical Mind will offer some surprising and interesting comparisons.
