The Panic Years Nell Frizzell, 2021-02-09 Renowned journalist Nell Frizzell explores what happens when a woman begins to ask herself should I have a baby We have descriptors for many periods of life adolescence menopause mid life crisis quarter life crisis but there is a period of profound change that many women face often in their late twenties to early forties that does not yet have a name Nell Frizzell is calling this period of flux the panic years and it is often characterized by a preoccupation with one major question should I have a baby And from there do I want a baby With whom should I have a baby How will I know when I'm ready Decisions made during this period suddenly take on more weight as questions of love career friendship fertility and family clash together while peers begin the process of coupling and breeding But this very important process is rarely written or talked about beyond the clichés of the ticking clock Enter Frizzell our comforting guide who uses personal stories from her own experiences in the panic years to illuminate the larger social and cultural trends and gives voice to the uncertainty confusion and urgency that tends to characterize this time of life Frizzell reminds us that we are not alone in this and encourages us to share our experiences and those of the women around us as she does with honesty and vulnerability in these pages Raw and hilarious The Panic Years is an arm around the shoulder for every woman trying to navigate life's big decisions against the backdrop of the mother of all questions
