

50th

1939 — December 27 — 1989

From the first day of your life you need to know that there is someone who cares for you.

Mom and Pop. You have always shown us your love in everything you do.

There were times we made it rough for you and gave you many a heartache.

You never seem to let us down, you stuck by us and showed us all the right roads to take.

You scolded when it was needed and praised us for good things when it was earned.

With your love and understanding from our mistakes, we were able to learn.

So on this special day of yours — the day you became husband and wife,

We have all joined together, all of us who have been a part of your life,

To wish you a Happy Anniversary on your Golden Wedding Day

And hope that God will hold you in his hands and listen to what we all say . . .

Mom and Pop, we love you and with God's blessings from above,

Wish you many more happy years together with everlasting love."
