Teaching English Learners and Students with Learning Difficulties in an Inclusive Classroom John Warren Carr, Sharen Bertrando, 2012 This guidebook offers powerful, concrete ways to engage all middle and high school students, especially English learners and students with other special needs, in successful learning. Teachers will benefit from the practical, evidence-based approaches for teaching standards-based content in any subject area. School and district leaders will benefit from the sustainable, schoolwide and districtwide practices that respect diversity and support inclusion. Authors John Carr and Sharen Bertrando provide invaluable insight, tools, and strategies, including:

- An effective framework for teaching diverse learners in any core discipline.
- Specific steps and resources for helping students organize concepts, develop appropriate use of academic language, and communicate ideas effectively.
- Rubrics identifying key characteristics of five English language proficiency levels along with teaching strategies appropriate for each.
- Methods for scaffolding assessments to ensure every student has a fair and accurate way to communicate what he or she is learning.
- A lesson plan template for combining and putting into practice all of the ideas, approaches, and tools included in this guidebook.

Central Themes Maya Kourani, Yousra Sabra (Ph.D.), Central Themes Level Three General and Life Sciences GLS is an English language course book designed for GLS students in Secondary Three. Its scope and sequence is based on the English syllabus of the Lebanese Ministry of Education and Higher Education. Central Themes Level Three GLS presents topics such as technology, teenagers, natural phenomena, human rights, environment and hygiene and nutrition which exhibit universality and stand true for people of all cultures. Through those topics, students better understand human experiences and gain insight into how the world works. Central Themes Level Three GLS is ideal for classroom interaction and test preparation.
