VALUE DO-ITS

Use a pencil and paper clip to create a game. The unit needs a different color pencil for the decimal (tenths) from your partner.

Rules: Each player takes turns spinning the spinner, where the spinner lands is what number they look for with their place card. When they find a number, they write their place card in the place they indicate it is located on it. If there are none left, it's your partner's turn. The person who fills the board first has won the most to this winner.
