

The UNBREAKABLE Code

by Sara Hoagland Hunter • illustrated by Julia Miner

Essential Question

How do different groups contribute to a cause?

Read about how a group of Navajos helped the American military during World War II.

John stood up the trail, sending pebbles skidding behind him. When he reached his favorite hiding place, he fell to the ground out of breath. Here between the old piñon tree and the towering walls of the canyon, he felt safe. The river full of late-summer rain looked like a silver thread winding through his grandfather's farm land. They would be looking for him now, but he was never coming down.

His mother had married the man from Minnesota. There was nothing he could do about that. But he was not going with them. He closed his eyes and rested in the stillness. The first blast of a mountain goat echoed off the canyon walls.
