Flower Festival

It's the last Saturday of February. Everyone's waiting for a parade along the main roads of Baguio City. It's Panagbenga – let a thousand flowers bloom!

Michael and Mae sit with their Mother by the window of a fastfood center waiting for the most colorful event of the city.

"Here comes the police escort now, Mama!" shouts Mae.

"Look at the band! They are dressed in floral shirts. Their instruments are decked with flowers," says Michael.

"Look at the street dancers," exclaims Mother. "They are doing different formations. See, that's like a big sunflower!"

"And look at the flowers, Mama," observes Mae. "They are all very colorful."

Along pass more bands and more street dancers in colorful costumes. There are flowers everywhere.

"We will watch the floats tomorrow," says Mother.
