Anatomy Of Injustice A Murder Case Gone Wrong:

Anatomy of Injustice Raymond Bonner, 2012-02-21 The book that helped free an innocent man who had spent twenty seven years on death row In January 1982 an elderly white widow was found brutally murdered in the small town of Greenwood South Carolina Police immediately arrested Edward Lee Elmore a semiliterate mentally retarded black man with no previous felony record His only connection to the victim was having cleaned her gutters and windows but barely ninety days after the victim s body was found he was tried convicted and sentenced to death Elmore had been on death row for eleven years when a young attorney named Diana Holt first learned of his case After attending the University of Texas School of Law Holt was eager to help the disenfranchised and voiceless she herself had been a childhood victim of abuse It required little scrutiny for Holt to discern that Elmore s case plagued by incompetent court appointed defense attorneys a virulent prosecution and both misplaced and contaminated evidence reeked of injustice It was the cause of a lifetime for the spirited hardworking lawyer Holt would spend more than a decade fighting on Elmore s behalf With the exemplary moral commitment and tenacious investigation that have distinguished his reporting career Bonner follows Holt s battle to save Elmore s life and shows us how his case is a textbook example of what can go wrong in the American justice system He reviews police work evidence gathering jury selection work of court appointed lawyers latitude of judges iniquities in the law prison informants and the appeals process Throughout the actions and motivations of both unlikely heroes and shameful villains in our justice system are vividly revealed Moving suspenseful and enlightening Anatomy of Injustice is a vital contribution to our nation s ongoing increasingly important debate about inequality and the death penalty

Proof of Guilt

Kathleen A. Cairns, 2020-04-01 Barbara Graham might have been a diabolical dame in a hard boiled detective story beautiful sexy and deadly Charged alongside two male friends in the murder of an elderly widow during a botched robbery attempt Bloody Babs became the third woman executed in California after a 1953 trial that played out before standing room only crowds captured the imaginations of journalists filmmakers and death penalty opponents Why Kathleen A Cairns asks of all the capital cases in the twentieth century did Graham s have such political resonance and staying power Leaving aside the question of guilt or innocence debated to this day Cairns examines how Graham s case became a touchstone in the ongoing debate over capital punishment While prosecutors positioned the accused woman as a femme fatale the media came to offer a counternarrative for Graham s life highlighting her abusive and lonely beginnings Cairns shows how Graham s case became crucial to the abolitionists of the time who used instances of questionable guilt to raise awareness of the arbitrary and capricious nature of death penalty prosecutions Critical in keeping capital punishment in the forefront of public consciousness until abolitionists homed in on a winning strategy Graham s case illustrates the power of individual stories to shape wider perceptions and ultimately public policies

The Case of Rose Bird Kathleen A. Cairns, 2016-11-01 This biography of Rose Elizabeth Bird is an overdue look at California s first female supreme court chief justice against the backdrop of California's political and cultural climate in the 1970s and 1980s Michigan Law Review, 2014 Reasons to Doubt Carolyn Hoyle, Mai Sato, 2019-01-10 This book reveals what happens to applications for post conviction review when those in England Wales and Northern Ireland who believe they are wrongfully convicted apply to the Criminal Cases Review Commission the only body that can refer a case back to the Court of Appeal once appellants opportunities for direct appeal are exhausted While the Court is obliged to hear all such referrals the Commission can only refer a case where it believes there is a real possibility that the Court will quash the conviction The first empirical study of all stages of decision making within the Commission this book starts from the premise that the test applied by the Commission the real possibility test is not inflexible Though created by statute and refined through case law it must be determined on a case by case basis drawing too on cultural and structural variables alongside fresh evidence gathered by the Commission Through in depth analysis of case files and interviews Hoyle and Sato scrutinize the Commissions operational practices its working rules and assumptions considering how these influence its understanding of the real possibility test Situating their rich empirical data within a framework of the Commissions social organizational and legal contexts this book demonstrates that in its open ended investigations there is considerable scope for discretion for thorough exploration of all possible avenues or for choosing a more superficial consideration of a case It emerges that while structured internal guidance drawing heavily on Court jurisprudence shapes decision making creating consistency in approach there remains some variability across cases over time that can be accounted for by the different professional backgrounds and personalities of Commission staff Ohio State Journal of Criminal Law, 2013 Anatomy of Murder Padam Kumar Jain, 1992 Medical Record George Frederick Shrady, Thomas Lathrop Stedman, 1899 Medical record, 1893 Maine Medical Journal, 1935 Includes an official roster in one issue per year British Medical Journal, 1886 The Medical Times and Gazette, 1871 The Literary World, 1884 The Youth's Companion Nathaniel Willis, Daniel Sharp Ford, 1899 Includes music Truth Seeker, 1887 Should a Lawyer Defend a Guilty Man? Joseph Nye Welch, 1959 University of Arkansas at Little Rock Law Review, 2002 Association Medical Journal, 1906 Bazaar Exchange and Mart, and Journal of the Household, 1893 The Students' Journal, and Hospital Gazette, 1885
