Application Forms For Bursary In Limpopo 2016:

Annual Report South Africa. Department of Basic Education, 2016 Enabling Indigenous Knowledge Systems in Action Research and Action Learning Mapotse, Tomé Awshar, Tetteh, Emmanuel N. A., Matsekoleng, Tsebo Kgotso, 2025-05-29 After centuries of colonialism and imperialism many indigenous knowledge systems have been purposefully disregarded and forgotten to the point that the vast majority of the public but specifically researchers are completely unaware of their existence By utilizing these systems in conjunction with action learning and action research it can be possible to garner perspective and influence from all types of people regardless of their social or economic standing in working towards an inclusive and prosperous global society Enabling Indigenous Knowledge Systems in Action Research and Action Learning encourages researchers the world over to apply Indigenous Knowledge Systems IKS using Action Research and or Action Learning AR AL approaches in their fields of specialization The AR AL framework approaches and methodologies cut across almost all field of studies Covering topics such as action research and learning coloniality and professional development this book is an excellent resource for researchers academicians educators pre service teachers sociologists and more Routledge Handbook of Gender and Corruption Sope Williams, Maria Krambia Kapardis, Lisa A. Kihl, 2025-12-31 The Routledge Handbook of Gender and Corruption showcases the most innovative and exciting research being conducted in this area of study providing a comprehensive go to reference for all who are interested in the topic In the last two decades there has been an increasing awareness of the importance of understanding the nexus between gender and corruption in terms of understanding the way men and women experience corruption and the differential impact of anti corruption frameworks on men and women as well as an understanding of how women in different spaces affect the prevalence and kinds of corruption This Handbook examines these issues as well as the role of social and gender norms in relation to corruption This understanding is crucial for our ability to design anti corruption frameworks that are effective and do not create unintended consequences for any group Despite the importance of this issue there remains a lack of in depth analytical and geographically diverse investigations into the nexus of gender and corruption This book addresses this gap by providing a comprehensive multidisciplinary geographically balanced treatise on gender and corruption This book combines sectoral thematic and country specific studies to allow readers to easily compare differing perspectives and approaches on cutting edge issues and their implications for gender and corruption Key sectors such as education politics public procurement healthcare sport sanitation and immigration are considered as well as the role of new technologies in supporting whistleblowing This Handbook provides academics practitioners and graduate researchers of public policy public administration law and anti corruption with all of the tools they need to understand the nuances of gender and corruption
