Postgraduate Research Engagement in Low Resource Settings Atibuni, Dennis Zami, 2019-09-27 The general academic progression and particularly research engagement of postgraduate students is characterized by various problems such as high dropout rates longer completion times low graduation rates and high repetition or retake rates This means that there are far fewer students pursuing postgraduate studies at tertiary institutions and universities than there are at the lower levels of education Yet there is growing demand for postgraduate education given its strong projected association with socioeconomic transformation at national and international levels among developed and developing countries alike Postgraduate Research Engagement in Low Resource Settings sets out to garner strategies for fostering efficiency of research conduct among the students and faculty so as to enhance high quality output for the envisaged personal societal national and international socioeconomic transformation Covering a range of topics such as intellectual property mental health and quality assurance this book is ideal for research supervisors higher education faculty librarians educators administrators researchers academicians and students

The Uganda Gazette Uganda, 2018-07-13 Intra-Africa Student Mobility in Higher Education Chika Trevor Sehoole, Jenny J. Lee, 2022-01-01 This book examines student mobility within Africa International student mobility is among the central activities of higher education internationalization As the number of international students increase so do the destinations in both number and geographic diversity Historically international student mobility has followed South North and North North patterns However recent literature show the growth in North South and South South patterns of student mobility There has also been a rise in regional mobility In what is referred to in the book as intra Africa mobility the book explores and analyzes the patterns of intra Africa mobility based on seven African countries South Africa Kenya Uganda Nigeria Ghana Senegal and Egypt The editors and contributors address three central research questions Why did the students choose the country they are studying in Why did they choose the institution they are studying in What are their academic and social experiences in these countries and their respective institutions This book is the first comprehensive exploration of intra Africa student mobility in a field that traditionally centers on the Global North

Country Frameworks for Development Displacement and Resettlement Susanna Price, Jane Singer, 2019-03-28 The problem of escalating population displacement demands global attention and country coordination This book investigates the particular issue of development induced displacement whereby land is seized or restricted by the state for the purposes of development projects Those displaced by these schemes often risk losses to their homes livelihoods food security and socio cultural support for which they are rarely fully compensated Bringing together 22 specialist researchers and practitioners from across the globe this book provides a much needed independent analysis of country frameworks for development induced displacement spanning Asia Africa Central and South America As global competition for land increases public and private sector lenders are lightening their social safeguards shifting the oversight for protecting the displaced to national law and regulations This raises a central question Do countries have effective ways of addressing the risks and lost opportunities for their people who are displaced While many countries remain impervious to the problem the book also shines a light on the few who are pioneering new legislation and strategies intended to address questions such as should the social costs to those displaced help determine whether a project meets the public interest and merits financing Does the modern state need powers of eminent domain How can country laws systems institutions and negotiations be reformed to protect citizens better against disempowering public and private sector development displacement This book will interest those working on forced and voluntary migration property and expropriation law human rights environmental and social impact assessment internal and refugee displacement from conflicts environment change disasters and development
