Exploring New Horizons in Career Counselling Kobus Maree,Annamaria Di Fabio,2015-11-03 This book brings together eminent global theorists and practitioners to share their views on the evolution of career counselling in recent decades Multiple changes of a fundamental and complex nature as well as related challenges in the world of work have necessitated career counselling to undergo such an evolution The authors examine the future nature and scope of new directions in the field of career counselling psychology and they critically reflect on as well as promote the predominant theoretical and conceptual framework of the field of career counselling The latest models and methods in and for the 21st century are explored and teased out including Mark Savickas proposal to shift the focus in interventions from conceptualising the self as content to seeing the self as a process. This approach is in keeping with the notion of career as a story and consistent with leading theories such as Jean Guichard's self construction framework and the life design paradigm. The authors deliver an avant garde text that is easy to read and use without diluting the conceptual and terminological complexities of the field. The book is an invaluable resource for new emerging and experienced researchers, academics, scholars, researchers, psychologists, social workers, teachers, and clients. It merges what is known about the field with emerging approaches. It gives an overview of theoretical paradigms that can be applied to a changing world of work. It makes a critical analysis of germane questions such as What does the future hold for the field of career counselling and how can challenges be turned into opportunities and How can different paradigms, approaches and strategies be harnessed to promote clients career life, wellbeing and resilience. It facilitates an understanding of the skills necessary to deal with career related transitions, challenges and barriers to help people acquire transferable career life skills and career choice readiness. It examines the importance of career adaptability and how people can develop this vital 21st century survival competency. It challenges career counsellors to grasp and acquire skills to promote and advocate social justice agendas. It promotes and demonstrates the exciting and promising notion of dialogue writing to enhance the dialogical work of the career counsellor and client. Individually and collectively the authors team up to blend retrospect and prospect and they make a concerted effort to convert 21st century challenges and frontiers in career counselling into opportunities, hurt into hope, hopelessness into inspiration. Handbook of Research on Creating Meaningful Experiences in Online Courses Kyei-Blankson, Lydia, Ntuli, Esther, Blankson, Joseph, 2019-11-29. While online courses are said to be beneficial and many reputable brick and mortar higher education institutions are now offering undergraduate and graduate programs online, there is still ongoing debate on issues related to credibility and acceptability. There is some reluctance to teach online and to admit and hire students who have enrolled in online programs. Given these concerns, it is essential that educators in online communities continue to share the significant learning experiences and outcomes that occur in online classrooms and highlight pedagogical practices used by online instructors to make their courses and programs comparable to those offered face to face. The Handbook of Research on Creating Meaningful Experiences in Online Courses is a comprehensive research book that examines the quality of courses in higher education that are offered exclusively online and details strategies and practices used by online instructors to create meaningful teaching and learning experiences in online courses. Featuring a range of topics such as gamification, professional development and learning outcomes, this book is ideal for academicians, researchers, educators, administrators, instructional designers, curriculum developers, higher education faculty and students. Current Issues and Emerging Trends in Medical Tourism Cooper, Malcolm, 2015-07-16.
