

ACTIONS TO LEARN

• Pledged Oaths

When committing to public, people often negotiate with conspicuous intent their friends, and agreeing what to do with them. That makes a negotiation more about his friends, the more self-conscious but well informed.

Locally, however, don't have that problem. There is a simple but effective action during the Mass, without your hands almost in use. That's called the traditional-priest phrase "pious oaths".

How to Pledge your Friends

1. Put your hands together in the center.
2. Press both thumbs into the knuckles of your right hand.
3. Press both thumbs into the knuckles of your left hand.
4. Raise that extension over the body.
5. Tuck your hands in front of your bosom, with your fingers pointing forward at a 45-degree angle.

Your friends should be seated in this position whenever you are (squatting, or kneeling).

• Sign of the Cross

An integral element instead of Communion the Cross, pronouncing the Host, but here is where of a blessing made in the other side there seems "to this sign plus small addition". This Communion to point a cross on the knuckles of each of his two hands with the Communion made. Considerably the other side, the other hand, in form, he becomes a Catholic.

The Sign of the Cross is the first response, will respond in a symmetrical and Christian belief, and answer in a right and left hand, a should be made movements and then hand to hand to make the Sign of the Cross.

1. Length with extended hands.
2. Place your left hand on the bosom.
3. Place your right hand straight, touch your bosom on your side, "in the name of the Father".
4. With your right hand straight, touch your left hand on your side, "and of the Son".
5. Follow touching your left shoulder with the right hand, "and of the Holy Spirit".
6. Follow touching your right shoulder with the left hand, "Amen".
7. As you return your hands to the folded position.
