Sensation and Perception

Big Question: What are sensations and perceptions, and how do they work to help us experience the world?

Sensation and Perception Objectives (from the College Board):

- Describe basic principles of sensory processing, including absolute threshold, difference threshold, signal detection, and sensory adaptation.
- Describe sensory perception (e.g., hearing, vision, touch, taste, smell, somatosensory, non-somatic), including the specific nature of energy transmission, relevant anatomical structures, and specialized pathways in the brain for each of the senses.
- Explain common sensory illusions (e.g., visual and auditory illusions).
- Describe general principles of organizing and interpreting sensation to produce stable perceptions of the external world (e.g., Gestalt principles, object perception).
- Discuss how experience and culture can influence perceptual processes (e.g., perceptual set, cultural effects).
- Explain the role of top-down processing in producing vulnerability to illusions.
- Describe the role of attention in perception.
- Challenge common beliefs in perception (e.g., perceptual illusions).
- Identify the major historical figures in sensation and perception (e.g., Gustav Fechner, David Hume, David Weber, Fechner Weber).

Test Information

- Your examination will be composed of the following two sections:
  - Multiple Choice: 30 questions (entire test grade)
    - 30 questions
    - Each question contains 5 possible answers to select from
  - Free Response:
    - You will be given a scenario and asked to apply various test terminology to that scenario in a written response.

Study Tips

- COMPLETE all assignments, homework, and reading before the exam.
- Take the PRACTICE QUIZZES at the end of each section in your textbook.
- Utilize QUIZZLET for online practice. There are lots of AP Psychology sections available.
- Utilize the SPACING EFFECT. Review 10-15 minutes every night; don't just criss the night before.
- Form STUDY GROUPS. The best indicator of whether or not you truly understand a concept is if you can explain it to others. Just make sure your time spent together is productive and don't get off task!
- CONTACT ME if you have questions. Don't be shy or afraid. E-mail works best for me.
