development The handbook makes the case for the importance of placing children at the heart of development debates and demonstrates how researchers policymakers and practitioners can engage children in development Through reports on field research as well as a critical engagement with theories in development studies and childhood studies contributors contest normative assumptions about childhood and global development They tease out and tease apart the complex social historical cultural economic epidemiological ecological geopolitical and institutional processes transforming what it means to be young in the world today Showcasing research from both established scholars and early career researchers and with particular prominence given to the work of authors from the global south this book will be an essential reference for policymakers practitioners and for researchers and students across childhood studies education geography sociology and global development Human Trafficking and Exploitation Belachew Gebrewold, Johanna Kostenzer, Andreas Th.

Müller, 2017-09-22 Human trafficking is a serious human rights violation that leads to the gross exploitation of its victims who are coerced into forced labor and slavery across the globe As the current migration movement and refugee situation reaches crisis point in Europe the risk of human trafficking from the Mediterranean Sea through Italy into Central and Western Europe has become a critical emergency Focusing on human trafficking along this route into Europe this book discusses the systematic exploitation of victims and the subsequent violation of human rights within an international context providing an overview of the causes regulation and prevention of the issue Academic researchers practitioners and policy makers are brought together to provide both theoretical perspectives and practice based approaches for addressing the issue of human trafficking As well as scholarly contributions from experts in the field the book also includes experiences and strategies of policy makers and practitioners from governmental and non governmental organizations along with the real life scenarios and practice reports Human Trafficking and Exploitation should be considered essential reading for academics policy makers advocates and activists interested in preventing human trafficking and protecting human rights It will also be of interest to those with research interests within the broader themes of law politics and international relations and social and health policy Annual Report of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Children and Armed Conflict

United Nations. General Assembly, 2013 Child Marriage, Rights and Choice Hoko Horii, 2021-11-18 This book addresses the issue of agency in relation to child marriage In international campaigns against child marriage there is a puzzle of agency While international human rights institutions celebrate girls exercise of their agency not to marry they do not recognize their agency to marry Child marriage usually defined as any formal marriage or informal union where one or both of the parties are under 18 years of age is normally considered as forced which is to say that it is assumed that are not capable of consenting to marriage This book however re examines this assumption through a detailed socio legal examination of child marriage in Indonesia Eliciting the multiple competing frameworks according to which child marriage takes place the book considers the complex reasons why children marry Structural explanations such as lack of opportunities and oppressive social structures are important but not exhaustive explanations Exploring the subjective reasons by listening to children s perspectives their stories show that many of them decide to marry for love desire to belong to the community and for new opportunities and hopes The book then demonstrates how the child marriage framework and indeed the human rights framework in general is constructed on too narrow a vision of human agency One that cannot but fail to respect and promote the agency of all regardless of gender race religion and age This book will be of interest to scholars students and practitioners in the areas of children s rights legal anthropology and socio legal studies
