Another Way English Edition:

Being Another Way Dustin Klinger, 2024 In Being Another Way Dustin Klinger recounts the history of how medieval Arabic philosophers in the Islamic East grappled with the logical role of the copula to be an ambiguity that has bedeviled Western philosophy from Parmenides to the analytic philosophers of today. Working from within a language that has no copula a group of increasingly independent Arabic philosophers began to critically investigate the semantic role that Aristotle for many centuries their philosophical authority invested in the copula as the basis of his logic. Drawing on extensive manuscript research Klinger breaks through the thicket of unstudied philosophical works to demonstrate the creativity of postclassical Islamic scholarship as it explored the consequences of its intellectual break with the past. Against the still widespread view that intellectual ferment all but disappeared during the period he shows how these intellectuals over the centuries developed and refined a sophisticated philosophy of language that speaks to core concerns of contemporary linguistics and philosophy.

The Plantation in the Postslavery Imagination Elizabeth Christine Russ, 2009 In a provocative new approach toward understanding transnational literary cultures this study examines the specter of the plantation that physical place most vividly associated with slavery in the Americas. For Elizabeth Russ the plantation is not merely a literal location but also a vexing rhetorical ideological and psychological trope through which intersecting histories of the New World are told. Through a series of precise in depth readings Russ analyzes the discourse of the plantation through a number of suggestive pairings male and female perspectives U S and Spanish American traditions and continental alongside island societies. To chart comparative elements in the development of the postslavery imagination in the Northern and Southern hemispheres Russ distinguishes between a modern and a postmodern imaginary. The former privileges a familiar plot of modernity the traumatic transition from a local largely agrarian order to an increasingly anonymous industrialized society. The latter abandoning nostalgia toward the past suggests a new history using the strategies of performance such as witnessing reticency and traversal. Authors examined include The Twelve Southerners Fernando Ortiz Teresa de la Parra Eudora Welty Antonio Ben tez Rojo Gayl Jones Toni Morrison and Mayra Santos Febres among others. Applying sharp analyses across a broad range of texts Russ reveals how the language used to imagine communities influenced by the plantation has been gendered racialized and eroticized in ways that oppose the domination of an ever shifting North while often reproducing the fundamental power divide. Her work moves beyond the North South dichotomy that has often stymied scholarly work in Latin American studies and importantly provides a model for future hemispheric approaches.
