French Politics and Society Alistair Cole, 2017-04-21 French Politics and Society is the ideal companion for all students of France and French politics with a strong reputation for its lucidity and lively exposition of the French polity. This third edition remains a highly readable text and offers a broad critical and comprehensive understanding of French politics. The book provides an excellent description of French institutions and ensures readers access to background information through discussing historical developments, political forces, public policy and the evolution of important aspects of French society. Key updates for the third edition include extensive updates including the Chirac, Sarkozy and Hollande presidencies, inclusion of constitutional and state reform coverage since 2008, the French party system and evolution of the French left and right, more on France's positioning with regards to Brussels and the impact of the European economic crisis. French Politics and Society is essential reading for all undergraduates studying French politics, French studies or comparative politics.

Free to Stand for Truth and Justice Laurent Gbagbo, 2023-10-11 Ousted from power by the French army on April 11 2011 following the disputed presidential election in Côte d'Ivoire of November 2010. Laurent Gbagbo was charged with crimes against humanity before the International Criminal Court (ICC) in The Hague on December 5 2011. This book, written from 2012 onwards thanks to numerous prison visits and interviews, is the only one to have been produced with the participation of the Ivorian president during his incarceration and trial. This unique testimony is more than ever a document for history because it sheds light on the manipulations of the 2010 elections, the collusion between Nicolas Sarkozy's France and the ICC to get rid of Laurent Gbagbo, and the stalling tactics and maneuvers that marred Gbagbo's tenure. Over meetings with François Mattei, Laurent Gbagbo looks back on his seven years in prison, explains what they mean and shares his vision for the future.

come what may. Laurent Gbagbo, historian and university professor, has campaigned all his life for the establishment of true democracy in his country, Côte d'Ivoire. He was elected President of the Republic in October 2000. His struggle to give meaning to the word 'independence' has always pitted him against powerful interests. François Mattei is a journalist and author of numerous books. , Diversity in Local Political Practice Karen Schönwälder, 2021-05-13 In what ways do local authorities respond to the increasing socio-cultural heterogeneity of urban populations? While other studies have often focused on policy declarations, the eight chapters in this book provide rich evidence on the content and implementation of local policies. Furthermore, several chapters offer theoretical insights into the factors driving or hindering policies that acknowledge socio-cultural heterogeneity and ensure more equality and inclusive public services. The general focus of the book is on cities in France and Germany, that is, two major immigration countries in Europe, countries in which local authorities have a relatively strong position within the state structure. The contributions analyze how local actors use their powers to ensure more equal public employment, adapt cultural offers and recreational facilities to the demands of a diverse population and/or to fight discrimination. Further chapters investigate who takes part in formulating policies and seek to explain why cities take different decisions about strategies and practices As a whole the book contributes to the comparative study of societal diversity and local politics in France and Germany and will be of interest to academics researchers and advanced students of Sociology Public Policy Law and Political Science This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies
