The Shattered Mirror Paula Murphy,2021-02-03 The Shattered Mirror Irish Literature and Film 1990 2005 is a response to changing representations of Irish identity Interrogating the period of the Celtic Tiger in Ireland which was accompanied by widespread social change the book draws on Lacanian psychoanalysis to explore issues such as prosperity Europeanism Diaspora multi culturalism decline in religious faith and gender norms Examining three writers and filmmakers in each section on narrative drama and film The Shattered Mirror argues that in this fifteen years Irish identity has changed radically

Annual Review of the Sociology of Religion. Volume 16 (2025) ,2025-11-27 The volume From Cases to Scandals Sexual Abuse in the Catholic Church contributes to the sociology of religion by examining how individual cases of clerical sexual abuse escalate or not into scandals that challenge religious authority and reshape institutional life It explores how the strategies of public mobilisation and media responses encourage collective reflection and action to ensure accountability and societal change Through case studies from Argentina Canada Croatia Czechia France Italy Germany Poland Spain The Netherlands and USA this volume explores Church responses believers reactions and the shifting dynamics of trust and legitimacy It highlights how these developments affect religious affiliation moral credibility and the public role of the Church offering new perspectives on the evolving relationship between religion society and scandal in contemporary contexts

Sacred Callings Brian Conway,2025-07-23 Sacred Callings is an innovative sociological study of cross national trends in the global Catholic priesthood Based on a comparative historical analysis of priesthood trends in Argentina Malta Nigeria and the Philippines during 1950 2010 the monograph investigates how significant developments within the Catholic Church have shaped the evolution of vocations over time The book introduces and tests a new critical events theory proposing a four part framework ecumenical councils prophetic stances sexual scandals and papal visits to help explain variation in priesthood trends It demonstrates how these events operate as cues for religious callings as well as how they interact with another Amid a global demographic shift in the Catholic priesthood marked by declining vocations in Western regions and growing numbers in countries such as Nigeria Sacred Callings provides a timely analysis of an important dynamic in the contemporary Church In doing so it offers fresh theoretical and empirical insights into the role of short term events in shaping religious change in modern societies
