Steven Fanning,2005-06-29 From divine visions to self tortures some strange mystical experiences have shaped the Christian tradition as we know it Full of colourful detail Mystics of the Christian Tradition examines the mystical experiences that have determined the history of Christianity over two thousand years and reveals the often sexual nature of these encounters with the divine In this fascinating account Fanning reveals how God s direct revelation to St Francis of Assisi led to his living with lepers and kissing their sores and describes the mystical life of Margery Kempe who took weeping to new decibel levels Through presenting the lives of almost a hundred mystics this broad survey invites us to consider what it means to be a mystic and to explore how people such as Joan of Arc had their lives determined by divine visions Mystics of the Christian Tradition is a comprehensive guide to discovering what mysticism means and who the mystics of the Christian tradition actually were The Selected Works of ... Frederic Richard Lees,1886 Selected Writings Saint Augustine (of Hippo),1962 Selected Readings from Augustine of Hippo Saint Augustine (Bishop of Hippo.),1991 Hungering for God Saint Augustine (of Hippo),1997 The devotional writings of Augustine are referenced by an appendix on how to read them fruitfully and how to apply the writer s spiritual insights to daily life The Analysis of Virtue in Alasdair Macintyre and His View of "The Enlightenment Project" Benjamin Okon MSP,2016-04-15 MacIntyre is greatly discontented with the nature of contemporary morality which according to him has a form i e what appears like morality but lacks essential content He argues that the most common feature of contemporary ethical discourse is that much of it is used to express individual preferences which leads to disagreements among philosophers and eventually results in debates that are interminable in character MacIntyre attributes the cause of this situation to the activities of the enlightenment philosophers of the 17th and 18th centuries who in an attempt to find rational justification for morality repudiated those essential elements that define the essence of morality and give it its contents Such elements include historical narrative tradition teleology and divine law In MacIntyres opinion morality so constructed was destined for failure since it was not founded on the true nature of the human person The obvious consequences of this failure were the birth of diverse post enlightenment ethical theories and a substantial change in the conception of virtue In order to remedy this deplorable condition of contemporary ethics MacIntyre along with other virtue ethicists advocates a certain renaissance of ethical principles that are founded on the true nature of the human person characterized by historical narrative tradition and teleology all grounded on divine legislation Morality thus reconstructed finds its fullest expression in the theory of human character traits i e virtues This is what has motivated MacIntyres construction of virtue theory which has brought him into confrontation with the enlightenment philosophers Our study and analysis of MacIntyres theory of virtue reveals that his account of virtue is inadequate This inadequacy is what has motivated our own project of reconstructing MacIntyres theory of virtue in view of offering an account of virtue that is adequate In this way our own project complements that of MacIntyre Selected Writings on Church-state Relations and Human Development Jaime L.
