Burroughs, 2020-12-21 THE dim shadow of the thing was but a blur against the dim shadows of the wood behind it The young man could distinguish no outline that might mark the presence as either brute or human He could see no eyes yet he knew that somewhere from out of that noiseless mass stealthy eyes were fixed upon him This was the fourth time that the think had crept from out the wood as darkness was settling the fourth time during those three horrible weeks since he had been cast upon that lonely shore that he had watched terror stricken while night engulfed the shadowy form that lurked at the forest s edge

A Girl Named Candy L. Walker Arnold,1995 During the 1937 Ohio River flood 12 year old Candy Mays house washed away and her stepmother deserted her The next morning she stood alone weeping and watching debris floating down the swollen river She soon saw a house floating past with 14 year old Ralph Roberts on top of it She went after him in a boat and managed to rescue him He too was alone in the world so they decided to look after each other People wanted to send them off to separate orphan homes but they managed to stay together until they were finally adopted by a prominent family Candy s fear of being separated from Ralph became a reality after the outbreak of World War II That separation brought her loneliness and conflict Her life was also touched by sorrow Only her strong character and faith brought her through that part of her life and helped her adjust to unexpected events as they came

Prehistoric Humans in Film and Television

Michael Klossner,2015-01-09 From the early days of the movies cavemen have been a popular subject for filmmakers not surprisingly since the birth of cinema occurred only a few decades after the earliest scientific studies of prehistoric man Filmmakers however were not constrained by the emerging science instead they most often took a comedic look at prehistory a trend that continued throughout the 20th century Prehistoric humans also populated adventure fantasy films with the original One Million B C 1940 leading the charge Documentaries were also made but it was not until the 1970s that accurate film accounts of prehistoric humans finally emerged This exhaustive work provides detailed accounts of 581 film and television productions that feature depictions of human prehistory Included are dramas and comedies set in human prehistory documentaries and films and television shows in which prehistoric people somehow exist in historical periods from the advent of civilization up to the present or in extraterrestrial settings Each entry includes full filmographic data including year of release running time production personnel cast information and format A description of each film provides background on the prehistoric elements Contemporary critical commentary is included for many of the works
