Southern Anthropological Society Proceedings Southern Anthropological Society, 1990 Monographic Series
Library of Congress, Anthropological Contributions to Conflict Resolution Alvin William Wolfe, Honggang Yang, 1996
Anthropological Contributions to Conflict Resolution consists of ten essays that make vividly apparent the variety of ways that anthropological approaches and perspectives can be of practical worth in the resolution of conflicts. The essays represent various subdisciplines in anthropology including legal and political anthropology, economic anthropology, cross cultural studies, interpretive approaches, and social network approaches. Conflicts and potential conflicts at many levels are the subjects of the essays. One contributor uses an ethnographic account of Sikh separatists in Punjab, India, to explore fighting resulting from the intertwining of religion and politics. Another essay discusses the role that anthropology played in conceptualizing the legal reforms on an island in the remote western Pacific in relation to the recent emergence of alternative dispute resolution. Conflicts over the commons in an American suburb are examined as are harmony ideology and adversarial ideology as they are used for both freedom and control at a manufacturing plant. The introductory essay includes a discussion of network models in regard to conflict resolution and the epilogue cites an agenda for applied research in the area.

Exploring Health and Well-Being Communication in Japanese Context Keiko Tsuchiya, 2025-04-18. This book is a selection of linguistic and multimodal research on healthcare and well-being communication in Japan. This volume offers unique perspectives to the field of healthcare communication research where studies in the West are still dominant, providing a missing piece of the whole picture. Multiculturality and multimodality in interactions in healthcare and well-being are the themes in this volume. Culture here is not limited to ethnic groups; including any sociocultural groups from different professional disciplines to atypical individuals. Two research principles are addressed: 1. multiculturality: how are inter-cultural encounters or issues among different sociocultural groups addressed and what practices are embodied in a particular sociocultural setting; and 2. multimodality: what semiotic resources are included in the analysis, how are those data collected and transcribed. The first chapter, Tsuchiya, provides a concise overview of healthcare communication research in Japan and Europe, introducing the themes and chapters in this volume. The introductory chapter is followed by case studies in a range of research fields in healthcare and well-being in Japan. Chapter 2, Aizaki, employs a discourse analytic approach to examine framing in a first encounter interaction among a Japanese adult with ASD and other three non-ASD Japanese adults. The context of Nukuto's ethnographic discourse research. Chapter 3 was set in a classroom at a Japanese university where a special education teacher was teaching crafting monodukuri to prospective teachers, highlighting materials as a communicative medium for grounding. Chapter 4, Sekine, Takashima, Oka, Yano, and Suzuki, investigates how Deaf children who use Japanese Sign Language adjust their expressions of a special location in interactions with those in different age groups. Chapter 5, Yohena, analyses discourses in Christian coaching between an American coach and a Japanese client from a cross cultural perspective The last two chapters are studies in hospital Kuroshima s conversation analytic research Chapter 6 provides a detailed description of doctors use of patient s medical records during consultations Chapter 7 Tsuchiya Nakamura and Coffey captures a moment when a trauma team leader rejects a member s proposal in simulation in the UK and Japan The concluding chapter Chapter 8 Tsuchiya recapitulates themes theories and methods which the chapter authors employed in the previous chapters encouraging publications in health and well being communication research in Asia and beyond Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1980 Anthropology and Food Policy Della E.
