

2. 'A prime minister is obliged by convention to choose his ministers from his own party, largely from the House of Commons.' Consider the advantages and disadvantages of this convention.
3. Examine critically the functions of the Minister in a government department and his relationship with his Permanent Secretary.
4. Why is it important that the Judges of the High Court are independent of the executive and of Parliament? How far is judicial independence achieved in the United Kingdom?
5. What are the special features of the Magistrates' Courts? Discuss the virtues and weaknesses of these courts.
6. Compare and contrast the English High Court with an administrative tribunal.
7. The modern British Civil Service has been described as the product of a Victorian philosophy. Is this a fair portrait? How did the Fulton Committee propose to reform the Service?
8. To what extent does the committee system operate in English local government? Discuss the distinctive features of these committees.
9. Consider the suggestion that English cities should be administered by a professional manager watched over by a small committee of the Council.
10. 'Educational policy ought to be determined by the local authority.' Discuss this proposition, bearing in mind the control and influence exercised by the Central Government.
