 Women is the first book to look at the liberating effect that studying with the OU can have on its graduates It charts the inspiring stories of fourteen women who empowered themselves and radically changed the course of their lives The women whose stories make up this book were in their twenties thirties and forties when they decided to take charge of their lives and write a new future for themselves They had one thing in common they felt bored and frustrated stagnating in jobs that didn't fulfill them or trapped at home limited by a lack of education They beat the odds finding the courage to take that first foundation course at the Open University Misha was a receptionist she is now a management consultant Shirleen was a housewife she is now working as an actuary Teresa has swapped a career as a piano teacher for that of a cytogeneticist The
