In the pre cable television era he was one of the few performers to successfully transition from TV to film. An Oscar winning actor and preternaturally quick witted comedian Williams became a cultural icon leaving behind a large and varied body of work when he unexpectedly took his own life in 2014. This collection of new essays brings together a range of perspectives on Williams and his oeuvre including beloved hits like Mrs Doubtfire Good Morning Vietnam Good Will Hunting The Fisher King Dead Poets Society and Aladdin. Contributors explore his earlier work Mork and Mindy The World According to Garp and his political and satirical films Moscow on the Hudson Toys Williams's darker less well known fare such as Being Human One Hour Photo Final Cut and Boulevard is also covered.
