An Age of Accountability John L. Rury, 2023-10-13 An Age of Accountability highlights the role of test based accountability as a policy framework in American education from 1970 to 2020 For more than half a century the quest to hold schools and educators accountable for academic achievement has relied almost exclusively on standardized assessment The theory of change embedded in almost all test based accountability programs held that assessment with stipulated consequences could lead to major improvements in schools This was accomplished politically by proclaiming lofty goals of attaining universal proficiency and closing achievement gaps which repeatedly failed to materialize But even after very clear disappointments no other policy framework has emerged to challenge its hegemony The American public today has little confidence in institutions to improve the quality of goods and services they provide especially in the public sector As a consequence many Americans continue to believe that accountability remains a vital necessity even if educators and policy scholars disagree

US Education in a World of Migration Jill Koyama, Mathangi Subramanian, 2014-03-14 Given the protracted varied and geographically expansive changes in migration over time it is difficult to establish an overarching theory that adequately analyzes the school experiences of immigrant youth in the United States This volume extends the scholarly work on these experiences by exploring how immigrants carve out new identities construct meanings and negotiate spaces for themselves within social structures created or mediated by education policy and practice It highlights immigrants that position themselves within global movements while experiencing the everyday effects of federal state and local education policy a phenomenon referred to as glocal global local or localized global phenomena Chapter authors acknowledge and honor the agency that immigrants wield and combine social theories and qualitative methods to empirically document the ways in which immigrants take active roles in enacting education policy Surveying immigrants from China Bangladesh India Haiti Japan Colombia and Liberia this volume offers a broad spectrum of immigrant experiences that problematize policy narratives that narrowly define notions of immigrant citizenship and student
