August 2013 Global Regents Answers:

Rubbish Belongs to the Poor Patrick O'Hare, 2022-02-20 Rubbish Waste Trash Whatever term you choose to describe the things we throw away the connotations are the same of something dirty useless and incontrovertibly bad But does such a dismissive rendering mask a more nuanced reality In Rubbish Belongs to the Poor Patrick O'Hare journeys to the heart of Uruguay's waste disposal system in order to reconceptualize rubbish as a 21st century commons at risk of enclosure On a giant landfill site outside the capital Montevideo we meet the book's central protagonists the classifiers waste pickers who recover and recycle materials in and around its fenced but porous perimeter Here the struggle of classifiers against the enclosure of the landfill justified on the grounds of hygiene is brought into dialogue with other historical and contemporary enclosures from urban privatizations to rural evictions to shed light on the nature of contemporary forms of capitalist dispossession Supplementing this rich ethnography with the author's own insights from dumpster diving in the UK the book analyses capitalism's relations with its material surpluses and what these tell us about its expansionary logics limits and liminal spaces Rubbish Belongs to the Poor ultimately proposes a fundamental rethinking of the links between waste capitalism and dignified work

Silk and Tea in the North Hanna Hodacs, 2016-05-17 This book links the trade of the Danish and Swedish East India companies to the British taste for tea a Scandinavian craving for colourful Chinese silk textiles import substitutions schemes and natural history in the eighteenth century It is a global history exploring the exchange of silver for goods in Canton It is also a European history studying the wholesale market for Asian goods in Gothenburg and Copenhagen the formation of taste and the impact of fashion in the blending of tea and the assortments of colours on wrought silk destined for markets across Europe Linking material history to political economy and the histories of science this book ends on the threshold of the nineteenth century the rise of the second British Empire in Asia and the creation of synthetic dyes in Europe

The Life and Comics of Howard Cruse Andrew J. Kunka, 2021-12-10 Nominated for the 2022 Eisner Award Best Academic Scholarly Work The Life and Comics of Howard Cruse tells the remarkable story of how a self-described preacher's kid from Birmingham Alabama became the so-called Godfather of Gay Comics This study showcases a remarkable fifty-year career that included working in the 1970s underground comics scene becoming founding editor of the groundbreaking anthology series Gay Comix and publishing the graphic novel Stuck Rubber Baby partially based on his own experience of coming of age in the Civil Rights era Through his exploration of Cruse's life and work Andrew J. Kunka also chronicles the dramatic ways that gay culture changed over the course of Cruse's lifetime from Cold War era homophobia to the gay liberation movement to the AIDS crisis to the legalization of gay marriage Highlighting Cruse's skills as a trenchant satirist and social commentator Kunka explores how he cast a queer look at American politics mainstream comics culture and the gay community's own norms Lavishly illustrated with a broad selection of comics from Cruse's career this study serves as a perfect introduction to this pioneering cartoonist as well as an insightful read for fans who already love how his work sketched a new vision of gay life The Contest for the Indian Ocean Darshana M Baruah, 2024-08-27 A major new examination of the Indian Ocean revealing how the region has become a hotly contested geopolitical flashpoint Throughout history the Indian Ocean has been an essential space for trade commerce and culture Every European power has sought to dominate it Now after a lull in the postwar period control of major shipping routes has once again become a critical aspect of every rising state's ambition to be a global power Darshana M Baruah shows how governments from Washington DC to Nairobi and Canberra are expanding their interests in the region The Indian Ocean is resource rich strategically placed and home to over two billion people Island nations have become more important than ever with Madagascar forming ties with Russia and the Comoros with Saudi Arabia It is also through the region that China engages with Africa and the Middle East This is a compelling account of the geopolitical significance of the Indian Ocean showing how the region has taken centre stage in a new global contest Debating New Approaches to History Marek Tamm, Peter Burke, 2019 A cutting edge collection of articles and commentaries in which leading scholars from across the globe discuss and debate the main problems and challenges facing today's historians Review of culture, 2014 The Experiment Must Continue Melissa Graboyes, 2015-11-09 The Experiment Must Continue is a beautifully articulated ethnographic history of medical experimentation in East Africa from 1940 through 2014 In it Melissa Graboyes combines her training in public health and in history to treat her subject with the dual sensitivities of a medical ethicist and a fine historian She breathes life into the fascinating histories of research on human subjects elucidating the hopes of the interventionists and the experiences of the putative beneficiaries Historical case studies highlight failed attempts to eliminate tropical diseases while modern examples delve into ongoing malaria and HIV AIDS research Collectively these show how East Africans have perceived research differently than researchers do and that the active participation of subjects led to the creation of a hybrid ethical form By writing an ethnography of the past and a history of the present Graboyes casts medical experimentation in a new light and makes the resounding case that we must readjust our dominant ideas of consent participation and exploitation With global implications this lively book is as relevant for scholars as it is for anyone invested in the place of medicine in society

International Child Law Rajnaara Akhtar, Conrad Nyamutata, Elizabeth Faulkner, 2020-04-08 This book examines the rights of the child using the global framework of the United Nations International Convention on the Rights of the Child 1989 Analysing both public and private international legal aspects this cross disciplinary text promotes a holistic understanding of the ongoing development of child law children's rights and the protection of the child In depth analyses of the following topic areas are included Childhood in the digital age Child labour International parental child abduction Inter country adoption Sexual exploitation Children and armed conflict and Indigenous children These topics are contextualised with further chapters on the concept of childhood and children's rights the international legal framework in which the Convention operates and a substantive chapter on the Convention itself This fourth edition has been updated and revised including a new chapter dealing with issues arising from childhood in the age of unprecedented digital technological advancements a crucial issue for childhood experiences in modern times This edition also includes new case studies recent legal developments in the field of international child law and inclusion of broader scholarship to capture diverse views on international law and child law The aim of this book is to provide the reader with an accessible informed critical and scholarly account of the international law framework relating to children Drawing on a range of legal and other disciplines this book remains a valuable resource for those in the course of study and research in this area Book Review Index ,2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Parliamentary Debates (Hansard).
