Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries Donna L. Gilton,2016-06-21 Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries Tools and Tips For Practitioners is the sequel to Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries Principles Programs and People On the one hand

Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries focuses on the information needs and the developmental and psychological characteristics of diverse library users of all ages. It endorses the use of ILI to promote lifelong learning in public libraries both by borrowing techniques from academic and school libraries and by building on existing public library traditions of programming and outreach. This book also compares lifelong learning in public libraries to informal and nonformal education in museums, community organizations and agencies, places of worship and other organizations. In addition, Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries describes basic steps that librarians can execute in order to get started. On the other hand, Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries focuses much more on how public librarians can specifically plan and implement their instruction with chapters on planning for instruction using teaching methodologies, teaching with and about technology, and bringing ILI together with more traditional public library services, programming and activities such as reference and Readers Advisory services, bibliotherapy and cultural and literacy programming. Changes in ILI standards and comparisons of ILI with basic reading, media, digital and cultural literacies are also described. Both books together should act as basic manuals for public librarians who promote lifelong learning. Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries also have helpful teaching hints for all librarians and other professionals who teach in a variety of settings.

I found new examples and provocative ideas just what I was looking for. Allison Rossett, professor of educational technology, San Diego State University. Just another academic anthology. Hardly. Michael Allen has convinced e learning's super heroes to join forces to crush complacency, demolish dogma, rewrite rules, streamline strategies and light a brighter future for e learning. Warning: The accumulated wisdom and original thinking of this elite team of designers, practitioners, consultants and researchers will leave you dissatisfied with your current e learning efforts and aching to put their ideas into play. William Horton, author e Learning by Design and consultant William Horton Consulting. The real learning at conferences takes place in the hallways. This wonderful book is like eavesdropping on those conversations except that Michael has put the top thinkers in our field in the hall for you. Jay Cross, chairman Internet Time Alliance.
