

Writing a Police Report Narrative

Police officers complete reports for every call to which they respond. Reports are a very important part of their job because they record important details of an event and are used to help detectives with investigations or as pieces of evidence in court. Therefore, police reports must be clear, factual, and concise.

One part of the police report is the narrative. This is a section in which an officer describes everything that he observed at the scene. Victims are identified, perpetrators are described based upon witness testimony, the scene (time and place) is recorded, and the situation is summarized. The narrative consists of facts – what the officer saw, heard, (possibly) smelled, observed, and experienced.

Basic Format for a police report narrative:

1. Begin with a one-sentence synopsis.
On May 14, 2011, at approximately 3:45 PM, an unidentified male entered McCabe's Pub and stole $198 from the register.
2. Provide a summary of the crime. Explain what happened in chronological order (beginning, middle, end).
3. Witnesses may be identified, and important details from their interviews may be included. If you have a statement from a victim or witness, write exactly what he or she says in quotation marks. Marks stated, "He yelled, 'Open the register and get on the floor!'"

IMPORTANT:

1. Use correct spelling, punctuation, and grammar. Police reports become part of the public record and may be used in court. You want to make a good impression in order to be considered knowledgeable and reliable.
2. Consider your audience. Use Standard English (not slang, police codes, or abbreviations) so that anyone reading the report understands the meaning clearly.

Sample police report narrative:

On May 14, 2011, at approximately 3:45 PM, an unidentified male entered McCabe's Pub and stole $198 from the register. McCabe's Pub was open, but there were no customers at the time of the crime. Carol Marks, co-owner, was cleaning tables when the suspect entered. Marks stated, "He yelled, 'Open the register and get on the floor!'" She did not see a weapon. After the suspect removed all of the money from the register, he ran out the front door. Ms. Marks called 9-1-1 at 3:57 PM. She described the suspect as a "Twenty-something" white male wearing a red t-shirt, jeans, and a Yankees cap.

It Did Happen: A Police Officer's Guide to Successful Report Writing Jamie M. Calise, 2024-10-11 If it s not in the report it didn t happen This law enforcement adage has stood the test of time for a reason With calls for greater transparency in the criminal justice system and technology revolutionizing how information is shared police reports have taken on new life in today s law enforcement world For most new officers learning how to write a report starts with learning what to write Make no mistake a quality investigation is the foundation of a successful police report By exploring the critical interplay between investigating and writing It Did Happen A Police Officer s Guide to Successful Report Writing examines case development and narrative construction from the ground up As it does it analyzes different categories of police reports and reviews the legal standards and procedural rules that officers regularly encounter Along the way it contrasts mandatory and discretionary reporting and discusses how computer aided dispatch systems can serve as valuable investigative resources Finally this book recognizes that police reports are the foremost tool for communicating the facts and circumstances that guide an officer s decisions Whether you attend the police academy take a criminal justice course or work in the security field this book offers several strategies to enhance your report writing skills      Preliminary Investigation and Police

Reporting: a Complete Guide to Police Written Communication John G. Nelson, 1970      A Practical Guide to Police Report Writing Tom E. Kakonis, Donald K. Hanzek, 1978 This book is a discussion on format role and content of police reports as well as the elements of crime and police language usage and diction is presented Major sections on the arrest report guide the police officer through his presentation of an overview of the entire incident supplementary sections provide a method for introducing details essential to completing a report but not necessary for the immediate grasp of an incident The writing task is simplified by outlining the report and concentrating on one specific element of the report at a time Each section of the report includes guidelines and models A discussion on the importance of reports in the criminal justice system and the actual content of reports is also presented The differences between facts inferences opinions and judgments are examined Chapters on the elements of crime and police diction and usage are designed as reference sections the latter discusses grammar punctuation and spelling and provides numerous exercises      Instructor's Guide United States.
