Iran's Look East Policy Mehran Kamrava, 2026-01-15 Iran's Look East Policy is the first systematic analysis of the causes, manifestations, and consequences of Iran's Look East policy and Iranian relations with countries as diverse as Russia, China, Indonesia, India, Malaysia, the Central Asian states, and the South Caucasus. Edited by Mehran Kamrava, the essays in the book are framed around several recent Look East developments. The Comprehensive Strategic Partnership with China had that country pledging to invest some 400 billion in Iran in return for the purchase of Iranian oil at heavily discounted prices. Russian President Vladimir Putin paid a highly publicized state visit to Iran. In 2023 Iran gained admittance into the Shanghai Cooperation Organization. This was followed by the announcement of Iran's admission into the BRICS group. Kamrava and the contributors to Iran's Look East Policy examine the broader global import of changes in Iranian foreign policy as they relate to debates regarding regionalism, the potential ascendancy of the East, and military, technological, and scientific cooperation among non-Western actors and powers.

Private Prisons and Public Accountability Richard Harding, 2018-04-27 Private prisons have become an integral part of the penal system in the United States, the United Kingdom, and Australia. There are already over 100 such prisons in these countries, and with the number of prisoners continuing to increase rapidly, the trend toward privatization seems irreversible. In this context, Richard Harding addresses the following issues: the contributions positive or negative that private prisons make to providing custody for offenders, whether or not private prisons stimulate improvement within the public prison system, and the difficulties with the regulation and accountability of private prisons. This book sets out to explore the contribution of private prisons to custodial practices, standards, and objectives. Many experts believe that properly regulated and fully accountable private prisons could lead to improvement within the public prison system, which has long been degenerate and demoralized. Harding sees the total prison system as a single entity with two components: public and private. He relies upon extensive fieldwork and draws upon published literature as well as in house documentation discussions with public and private authorities and a range of government documents Key issues covered in Private Prisons and Public Accountability are overcrowding program delivery prisoners rights quality of staff and financial control This volume will be a significant addition to the criminal justice literature but it will also appeal to sociologists policymakers and scholars interested in the privatization of various institutions in our society

The US and Latin America Bevan Sewell,2015-12-21 The US in the 1950s and 1960s wanted to prevent a new communist regime in the Western hemisphere at any cost Under President Eisenhower the US pursued a policy of support for dictators the economic shoring up of regimes that impoverished their own people and sanctioned direct interventions such as the overthrow of the Guatemalan government in 1954 When John F Kennedy came to power he promised a reset of relations and set about pouring aid into Latin America Yet in 1961 Kennedy also attempted to intervene in Central American domestic politics with the Bay of Pigs operation How far was each of the approaches pursued by the two administrations responsible for increasing tensions and encouraging radicalism on the continent In answering this question Bevan Sewell shows how Eisenhower's strategic stance on the Cold War became increasingly detrimental to Latin America over time and shows how similar policies were continued by the Kennedy administration The US and Latin America provides a new lens through which to assess US policy towards Latin America at an important time in inter American relations
