... the people. When these people were converted the first time, small towns throughout the country began to spring up, spreading outwards, becoming the "Celtic world" of Christianity with God, the world, and the people being one with each other.

Each meeting is a combination of presentations and interactive learning activities and these provide the opportunity for students to develop their own understanding and insights. The topics will be outlined in the following two sections.

DE-PORT ... that, throughout our existence, we have been built upon. The only other word is DE-PORT ... that, throughout our existence, we have been built upon.

... While the first century was characterized by open competition, during the second century, the church became more centralized and hierarchical, leading to a decline in personal freedom and spiritual depth.
