Children, Childhood, and the Future Andrea Kleeberg-Niepage, 2020-01-10 Although most of the world s children live in the Global South much of the corpus of scientific knowledge which forms the basis of the current notion of good childhood worldwide is drawn from research on Western middle class children Even cross cultural research often applies the Western model of childhood as the standard to which others must correspond This volume serves to bridge this gap by both bringing up significant features of the development and socialisation of children in African countries and presenting cross cultural procedures which help to discuss and develop differentiated and joint ideas about childhood instead of implementing one sided standards which are disconnected from most children s lives War, Women and Post-conflict Empowerment Josephine Beoku-Betts,Fredline A. M’Cormack-Hale,2022-01-13 Since the 1991 2002 civil conflict ended in Sierra Leone the country has failed to translate the accomplishments of women s involvement in bringing the war to an end into meaningful political empowerment This is in marked contrast to other post conflict countries which have increased the political participation of women in elected and appointed office increased the representation of women in leadership positions and enacted constitutional reforms promoting women s rights Written by Sierra Leonean and Africanist scholars and experts from a broad range of disciplines this unique volume analyses the historical and contextual factors influencing women s political economic and social development in the country In drawing on a diverse array of case studies from health to education refugees to international donors the contradictions successes and challenges of women s lives in a post conflict environment are revealed making this an essential book for anyone involved in women and development The Impacts of Language and Literacy Policy on Teaching Practices in Ghana Philomena Osseo-Asare,2021-03-15 This text critically examines changes in Ghanaian language and literacy policy following independence in 1957 to consider its impacts on early literacy teaching By adopting a postcolonial theoretical perspective the text interrogates the logic behind policy changes which have prioritised English local language or biliteracy It draws on data from interviews with teachers and researcher observation to demonstrate how policies have influenced teaching and learning Dr Osseo Asare s findings inform the development of a conceptual framework which highlights the socio cultural factors that impact the literacy and biliteracy of young children in Ghana offering solutions to help teachers combat the challenges of frequent policy changes This timely monograph will prove to be an essential resource not only for researchers working on education policies teacher education and English language learning in postcolonial Ghana but also for those looking to identify the thematic and methodological nuances of studying literacy and education in postcolonial contexts Qui est qui en France ,2014
