

Colonial Economics

In the 18th century, behavior in each colony was often informed by an economic goal, and often based on prosperity. However, for example, colonial taxation often demonstrated evidence for general and specific taxation. Few people had property money and ability to pay for general and specific taxation. Therefore, they often purchased colonial tobacco or colonial tea, paying for these colonial tobacco and colonial tea with colonial currency for colonial tobacco and colonial tea.
