

Take Five Planning Sheet

Directions: Follow these steps to organize and complete this planning sheet. When you're ready, you'll submit it as your assessment. When it's time for your Discussion-Based Assessment, you'll be ahead of the game since you have your plan.

Here's your mission:

- Tell a short story. Share something that really happened or make it up—you decide. Keep it simple, but make sure it has a beginning, middle, and end.
- Include at least one classifier in your story. Semantic, descriptive, instrumental, and locative classifiers—so many to choose from. Which one fits your story?
- Use at least one storytelling technique. Focus on what your story looks like and choose one technique used in ASL to make it shine. Depending on the technique, you might use it to give a visual description, shift roles, convey speed, and more. Have fun with it!

Plan It

Use this chart as a script for what you plan to share. Check out this sample for a better idea of what yours might look like. Have your rubric handy—it'll show you how you'll be scored.

Requirement	What I plan to say	Notes/Reminders (signing, hand position, facial expressions, etc.)
Sample: Story Beginning: I went camping with my family. Middle: There was a tree next to the pond.
