Marabout Women in Dakar Amber B. Gemmeke, 2008 This rich ethnographic study explores the life and work of successful marabout women in Dakar It is set against the background of their private family lives of developments in Senegalese society and of global changes While including female experts in spirit possession and plant based healing it also gives a rare insight in the work of women who offer Islamic knowledge such as Arabic astrology numerology divination and prayer sessions With the analysis of marabout women s work this study sheds light on the ways in which women s authority in esoteric knowledge is negotiated legitimated and publicly recognised in Dakar The study focuses especially upon marabout women s strategies to gain their clients trust Reference to rural areas is a significant element in this process This study thus contributes to an understanding of the gendered way in which trust and scepticism are related to marabouts work and of the role of a connection between Dakar and the rural areas therein
