Academic Listening Encounters Cd:

Academic Listening Encounters: American Studies Student's Book with Audio CD Kim Sanabria, Carlos Sanabria, 2007-10-08 The Academic Encounters series uses a sustained content approach to teach skills necessary for taking academic courses in English. There are two books for each content area. Academic Listening Encounters American Studies engages students through interviews and academic lectures on stimulating topics from the field of American Studies. Topics include civil rights, traditional American values in relation to life today, country music, sports and the globalization of American slang. Students practice note taking skills, discuss content, express their personal opinions and make presentations. A Student Audio CD with the lecture portion of the audio program is included. Topics correspond with those in Academic Encounters American Studies. Each book may be used independently or the two books may be used together to form a complete four skills course.

Academic Listening Encounters: Life in Society Student's Book with Audio CD Kim Sanabria, 2004-04-19 Academic Listening Encounters Life in Society develops students' listening and note taking skills using authentic interviews and classroom lectures. The Student's Book develops students' listening and note taking skills using a variety of recorded materials. It introduces them to stimulating topics within the field of sociology including high interest topics such as peer pressure, gender roles and the influence of the media. Listening materials include a variety of warm up activities, informal interviews and a formal academic lecture for every chapter. Students practice crucial listening skills such as listening for main ideas, listening for examples and listening for organizational phrases. The materials also serve as stimuli for discussion and note taking activities. Pre-listening tasks expose students to vocabulary they will encounter in the interviews and lectures and help them build background knowledge of the topic. Topics correspond with those in Academic Encounters Life in Society and these books can be used together as a four skills course, however they function equally well as stand alone texts. An audio CD of the academic lectures, an important part of the audio program is included with the Student's Book to provide students with additional listening practice. A Life in Society 2 Book Set is available ISBN 0 521 546702. It includes one copy of the Student's Reading Book and one copy of the Student's Listening Book at a discounted price.

Academic Encounters Human Behavior Student's Book with Audio CD Miriam Espeseth, 2004-06-28 The Academic Encounters series uses a sustained content approach to teach skills necessary for taking academic courses in English. There are two books for each content area. Academic Listening Encounters Human Behavior engages students through interviews and academic lectures on stimulating topics from the fields of psychology and communications. Topics include stress and the immune system, intelligence, testing, friendship and love. Students practice crucial listening skills such as listening for main ideas and listening for implied information. They also practice note taking skills, discuss content, conduct interviews and make presentations. A Student Audio CD with the lecture portion of the audio program is included. Topics correspond with those in Academic Encounters American Studies. The books may be used independently or together.

Teaching Pronunciation

Hardback with Audio CDs (2) Marianne Celce-Murcia, Donna M. Brinton, Janet M. Goodwin, 2010-04-16 Teaching Pronunciation Second edition is a comprehensive treatment of pronunciation pedagogy. This new edition of Teaching Pronunciation undoubtedly the gold standard for pronunciation methodology texts has been revised to reflect recent research into the sound system of North American English as well as new practices in pronunciation pedagogy. Audio CDs with additional examples are now packaged with the book Oceanic Music Encounters Mervyn McLean, 2007 Mervyn Evan McLean teacher, mentor, researcher and archivist is the worthy recipient of this set of essays Oceanic Music Encounters the Print Resource and the Human Resource. The authors include colleagues and former students of an academic who was a practising ethnomusicologist only three years after the term was coined. Although most of his university career was spent at the University of Auckland, Mervyn's influence in the fields of Pacific music research and archiving were such that the contributions in this volume are the result of both distant reputation and personal acquaintance. The volume is the product of the Study Group on Musics of Oceania within the International Council for Traditional Music of which Mervyn has been a member for many years. The volume title is intended to encompass the span of Mervyn's professional interests which include the role of archives in Oceanic music research and performance, material culture collections in music research and performance, the role of transcription in music research and performance, the importance of bibliographic research in tracing the connections between the past and the present, the significance of collaboration in research particularly with scholars in other disciplines and its significance to performance and the colonial encounter and its implications for historical and contemporary performance. Academic Encounters Bernard Seal, Miriam Espeseth, 2002 Using authentic reading from college textbooks this book teaches academic reading and study skills and introduces students to psychology. A Human Behavior 2 Book Set is available ISBN 0 521 8165 5. It includes one copy of the Student's Reading Book and one copy of the Student's Listening Book at a discounted price. The Student's Listening Book includes one audio CD containing the lecture portion of the audio program. The complete audio program of warm up activities, interviews and lectures is available for purchase separately. Inclusive Music Histories: Leading Change through Research and Pedagogy Ayana O. Smith, 2023-08-18 Inclusive Music Histories: Leading Change through Research and Pedagogy models effective practices for researchers and instructors striving either to reform music history curricula at large or update individual topics within their classes to be more inclusive. Confronting racial and other imbalances of Western music history the author develops four core principles that enable a shift in thinking to create a truly intersectional music history narrative and provides case studies that can be directly applied in the classroom. The book addresses inclusivity issues in the discipline of musicology by outlining imbalances encoded into the canonic repertory, pedagogy and historiography of the field. This book offers comprehensive teaching tools that instructors can use at all stages of course design from syllabus writing and lecture planning to discussion techniques with assignments for each of the subject matter case studies. Inclusive Music Histories enables instructors to go
