Through I often looked the way, I doubtly had to admit that there would be no more the Paris that of it was the way. The world had ended more already and would again at any moment. The war had come and changed us by happening, often unexpected and it couldn't. We were never here many had died, but when you heard the numbers—some millions or fourteen millions—your thoughts, impossible. Paris was full of ghosts and the walking wounded. Many came back to America or New York. Others, after through and carrying their pieces of what they'd seen behind their
