Our Times, Our Lives Eve Otto, Jozef Otto, 2004-11 Eve Otto explains When I began writing this book I had in the back of my mind that those who are young now might someday be interested in what life was like when their grandparents were growing up how life changed drastically with the coming of World War II in Europe and the turbulent years that followed the traumas of our emigration to America with our three young children and the difficult adjustments we had to make My book then is sort of a legacy to them

Our Familiars Anne Coombs, 2024-07-30 A beautiful meditation on the awe-inspiring responsibility we hold with other living creatures from their containment and loss of freedom to our intense and mysteriously mutual love. How do animals guard, serve and care for us? And how and why do we love them so much? Anne Coombs spent her entire life working to understand the profound answers that come from these two deceptively simple questions. Before her death in late 2021, she researched the topic extensively and reflected deeply on her own experiences with animals, both domestic and in the paddocks. The animals in her life were privy to her deepest and darkest emotions: her despair, her tears and her love. In Our Familiars, Anne calls for all animal caregivers to use our great creative imaginations to see animals as conducting lives as meaningful as our own, intersecting in our intimate spaces. She has left us with a beautiful meditation on the awe-inspiring responsibility we take on with other living creatures from their containment and loss of freedom to our intense and mysteriously mutual love.

Opening with the story of Anne's childhood familiar, Elsie the goat, this tender book takes us on an expansive journey that is part personal memoir, part insightful research and part noble call to action. With her last book, Anne leaves us an invaluable gift. With wit, humour and insight, she implores us to feel wonder as we watch how our animal companions live.
