Handbook for Preparing Graduate Papers in Music J. David Boyle, Richard K. Fiese, Nancy Zavac, 2001 The purpose of Preparing Graduate Papers in Music is to provide music students with some guidelines to assist in the preparation of theses essays, dissertations and other papers that may be written as part of their graduate program. This manual includes information and examples for preparing such papers and is designed specifically to assist students in writing about music and in documenting references to music, music notation, recordings and other musical resources. It is intended to complement guidelines provided by a university's graduate office and the two style manuals most used by music students: A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations (Turabian, 1996) and the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA, 1994).

Research Design Explained Mark L. Mitchell, Janina M. Jolley, 2007 The aim of this book is to encourage students to value, read and conduct ethical research. It now includes chapters on evaluating research, writing proposals and psychology as a science.

Writing Philosophy Papers Zachary Seech, 1997 Sound reasoning is the basis of good philosophy. Writing Philosophy Papers is the only handbook that clearly and concisely introduces philosophy students to four basic kinds of papers: thesis, defense, comparison and contrast, research and summary, commonly assigned in philosophy courses. First published in 1993, Writing Philosophy Papers continues to help thousands of students learn the basics of philosophical logic and the elements of a well-reasoned paper. It contains specific instruction on planning, selecting a topic, doing research, writing, revising and presentation. It also has a new chapter on informal logic that helps readers polish their persuasive writing skills. Based on the author Zachary Seech's experience as a philosophy professor and writing instructor, Writing Philosophy Papers addresses the basic questions most students have when faced with writing a philosophy paper, such as how to handle documentation and how to use the school library. In addition, new material on accessing The Philosopher's Index and using computer-based references makes Writing Philosophy Papers an indispensable desk reference for every philosophy student.
