Choice, 2008 Art-based Research Shaun McNiff, 1998 Art therapy and all of the other creative arts therapies have promoted themselves as ways of expressing what cannot be conveyed in conventional language Why is it that creative arts therapists fail to apply this line of thinking to research In this exciting and innovative book Shaun McNiff one of the field s pioneering educators and authors breaks new ground in defining and inspiring art based research He illustrates how practitioner researchers can become involved in art based inquiries during their educational studies and throughout their careers and shows how new types of research can be created that resonate with the artistic process Clearly and cogently expressed the theoretical arguments are illustrated by numerous case examples and the final part of the book provides a wealth of ideas and thought provoking questions for research This challenging book will prove invaluable to creative art therapy educators students and clinicians who wish to approach artistic inquiry as a way of conducting research It will also find a receptive audience within the larger research community where there is a rising commitment to expanding the theory and practice of research Integrating artistic and scientific procedures in many novel ways this book offers fresh and productive visions of what research can be

Ethnologia Europaea Journal of European Ethnology Tom O'Dell, Robert Willim, 2012-03-26 Ethnography has become something of a buzzword in recent years It is talked about and invoked in disciplines ranging from anthropology and ethnology to literature history business administration and design studies Textbooks that teach ethnography tend to imbue students with the impression that ethnography is a mode of systematic investigation by which the researcher gets closer to the realities of people's everyday lives. But how straightforward are these processes in reality? As ethnography spreads into new folds of research both within and without the academy the contributions in this volume demonstrate the manner in which field methods are adjusting, transforming or taking new forms altogether. If textbooks might lead students to believe that observations and interviews are the grounds upon which good ethnography can regularly be produced the authors in this volume take as their point of departure the realisation that ethnography is being used in a multitude of different contexts which forces them and us as readers to question the regularities and irregularities of their own work.

Arts Based Research Tom Barone, Elliot W. Eisner, 2011-03-28 Arts Based Research is ideal for students, researchers and practitioners. This unique book provides a framework for broadening the domain of qualitative inquiry in the social sciences by incorporating the arts as a means of better understanding and rethinking important social issues. In the book's 10 thought provoking chapters authors Tom Barone and Elliot W Eisner pioneers in the field address key aspects of arts based research including its purpose and fundamental ideas, controversies that surround the field and the politics and ethics involved and key criteria for evaluation.

Landscapes of Aesthetic Education Stuart Richmond, Celeste Snowber, 2009 This book brings together two experienced educators from the fields of teacher education and arts education. The authors Richmond a photographer and Snowber a dancer and poet see aesthetic education as aiming to extend creativity, appreciation of the arts and nature and the sensuous qualities of everyday life to gain a more intimate understanding of the self and the world. They include poetic narrative, philosophical and artistic ways of writing to support a more embodied and holistic aesthetics. Landscapes of Aesthetic Education has significance for educators, scholars, students and artists and for all who would like to explore the connections between the arts aesthetics and transformation.

Visual Arts Research, 2005

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009

Using Arts-based Research Methods Jenna Ward, Harriet Shortt, 2020-01-22 This book showcases a selection of arts based research methods used in the empirical study of business organisation and the humanities. Each chapter presents a discursive analysis and a detailed how to guide for a range of methods including poetry, drawing, photography and social media, film, food, knitting, letter writing and dance. Consideration is given to a variety of steps in the research process from research design and data collection to analysis and publication. Using Arts based Research Methods is a unique resource for experienced researchers and students looking to broaden their palette of qualitative research methods.
