Five-Paragraph Essay HINTS & TIPS

1 Introduction Paragraph:
This is your chance to "hook" your reader. This paragraph must include a brief summary of what the reader can expect from this essay. Provide enough information so your reader will understand your essay topic and make your writing purpose clear.

2 Paragraph One:
Start about your chosen interesting-sub-topic in this first paragraph. Do you have your reader hooked? Begin with a topic sentence that introduces one main idea that will support the essay topic and then continue on with relevant supporting evidence. Each paragraph should include 1 to 3 sentences and all ideas in the paragraph must further develop that topic sentence.

3 Paragraph Three:
Now you will introduce your second sub-topic and evidence to support it. Do you support your writing, make sure it is a logical sequence of thoughts. Use transition words & phrases (First, Next, However, Although, As a result of, Finally etc.). Use the beginning of your paragraphs and to move from one idea to another.

4 Paragraph Four:
This paragraph begins with the final sub-topic sentence that relates back to the essay topic. Again, support this sub-topic with specific examples and details.

5 Conclusion Paragraph:
End this paragraph with a summary of the writing your reader to consider that will further reinforce the reader's understanding. Do not repeat the same ideas.
