Anna In The Middle:

Santa Anna of Mexico Will Fowler, 2009-10-25 Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna 1794-1876 is one of the most famous and infamous figures in Mexican history. Six times the country's president, he is consistently depicted as a traitor, a turncoat, and a tyrant, the exclusive cause of all of Mexico's misfortunes following the country's independence from Spain. He is also, as this biography makes clear, grossly misrepresented. Will Fowler provides a revised picture of Santa Anna's life, offering new insights into his activities in his bailiwick of Veracruz and in his numerous military engagements. The Santa Anna who emerges from this book is an intelligent, dynamic, yet reluctant leader, ingeniously deceptive at times, courageous and patriotic at others. His extraordinary story is that of a middle-class provincial criollo, a high-ranking officer, an arbitrator, a dedicated landowner, and a political leader who tried to prosper personally and help his country develop at a time of severe and repeated crises as the colony that was New Spain gave way to a young, troubled, besieged and beleaguered Mexican nation.

Taking Oneself Playfully Marta Badoni, 2025-12-23 Taking Oneself Playfully is a fascinating journey into the life and work of Marta Badoni, a highly respected adult and child training analyst in Italy and France. The book is mainly formed of a collection of essays written in different moments of her life, skilfully woven together to recount Badoni's life in parallel with the evolution of her thinking and her clinical work. Drawing on influences from Winnicott and Bion, we explore the importance of the body and of the dialogue between analyst and patient in Badoni's theoretical and clinical development. The book offers a remarkable interplay of personal reflection and confidence with theoretical insight and illuminating clinical material. This is the first book in English to explore Badoni's full contribution to psychoanalysis. Offering a playful yet deep exploration of the making of life and work of a psychoanalyst, this is key reading for all psychoanalysts.
