The Digital Banal Zara Dinnen, 2018-01-02 Contemporary culture is haunted by its media Yet in their ubiquity digital media have become increasingly banal making it harder for us to register their novelty or the scope of the social changes they have wrought What do we learn about our media environment when we look closely at the ways novelists and filmmakers narrate and depict banal use of everyday technologies How do we encounter our own media use in scenes of waiting for e mail watching eBay bids programming as work and worrying about numbers of social media likes friends and followers Zara Dinnen analyzes a range of prominent contemporary novels films and artworks to contend that we live in the condition of the digital banal not noticing the affective and political novelty of our relationship to digital media Authors like Jennifer Egan Dave Eggers Sheila Heti Jonathan Lethem Gary Shteyngart Colson Whitehead Mark Amerika Ellen Ullman and Danica Novgorodoff and films such as The Social Network and Catfish critique and reveal the ways in which digital labor isolates the individual how the work of programming has become an operation of power and the continuation of the Californian ideology which has folded the radical into the rote and the imaginary into the mundane The works of these writers and artists Dinnen argues also offer ways of resisting the more troubling aspects of the effects of new technologies as well as timely methods for seeing the digital banal as a politics of suppression Bridging the gap between literary studies and media studies The Digital Banal recovers the shrouded disturbances that can help us recognize and antagonize our media environment

A Critical Account of Article 106(2) TFEU Jarleth Burke, 2018-03-22 A Critical Account of Article 106 2 TFEU Government Failure in Public Service Provision offers a sceptical perspective on how EU law applies to public services Article 106 2 provides that other Treaty rules may be disapplied in order to sustain a Service of General Economic Interest SGEI The rhetorical presentation of Article 106 2 is as a strict exception As a result Article 106 2 is often presented as a threat to Europe s public service tradition This book challenges those shibboleths by using the concept of government failure It is concerned with instances of government intervention that are unnecessary generate avoidable inefficiencies or that can be bettered so as to realise general interest goals more efficaciously As an element of the government failure critique a market feasibility test incorporating the concept of market failure is used to expose laxity in the review of general interests under Article 106 2 Complementing that the process of disapplying other Treaty rules under Article 106 2 is shown to have evolved from being strict to being highly indulgent of SGEI providers with a relatively recent but only partial correction post Altmark Overall the strict exception label for Article 106 2 does not hold Moreover it is contingent and presents no legitimate general interest related threat to the organisation and delivery of public services A comprehensive re orientation of Article 106 2 on issues of proof is required as is greater reliance on market counterfactuals and much more careful separation of objectives and means in SGEI operation and design Through these measures the toleration of government failure can be stemmed and Article 106 2 s contingency reduced
