3 Complete the text with the missing words. The first letters are given.

I've just got back from the trip of a ¹ lifetime, backpacking around Japan with a group of friends. We spent several weeks looking at guidebooks and reading travellers' blogs so we could plan an interesting ¹ route. Finally, it was time to go and we took a ² flight ³ from London to Tokyo, which took twelve hours – luckily I slept most of the journey. A lot of people recommended spending time in Tokyo or Kyoto, but we decided to go off the ⁴ beaten ⁵ track as well – to get an idea of what Japan is like away from the usual tourist trails. We had quite a bit of time in the mountains Wakayama, and in the wilds of Hokkaido, where organised tourism was almost non-existent. We had to do everything for ourselves, which was a fantastic experience. We didn't really want to leave Hokkaido and its beautiful clean ⁶ air. Not like Osaka, which we travelled through later. The ⁷ air ⁸ there was terrible – it was actually hard to breathe!

2 Mum bought me a phone which it was easy to use.
3 Have you looked at the map I brought?
4 Sasha who is one of the most inexperienced travellers went to Thailand.
5 Can you tell me how you are so late?
6 This is the book what I got in Holland.

USE OF ENGLISH

6 Complete the text with one word in each gap.

This week at college we've been discussing the impact of cars in cities and thinking about possible solutions. It's part of an environmental science project ¹ which I'm taking this term. Our hometown is quite progressive really. There are a lot of areas where you ² aren't ³ allowed to drive except for emergencies, and car-sharing is quite usual. I don't know ⁴ what ⁵ ideas those were, but they have worked. However, there is more to be done. Probably the most important step to begin with is to get people to stop and think before they ⁶ set ⁷ off on a journey. Do they actually need to take their car, or ⁸ can ⁹ they walk? We've all become used to being part of a car culture, but we ¹⁰ need ¹¹ to change what we do to really make a difference.
