

APUSH Chapter 8 Notes

- I. Introduction
 - 1. Thomas Jefferson, third president of the U.S., had a distaste for pomp and ceremony
 - 2. Conciliated the bitterness of the 1800 election, blaming it on the now-passed French Revolution; stated that "we are all republicans, we are all federalists"
 - 3. Jefferson played active role as president, believed that government strength lied in the content of the people
- II. The Age of Jefferson
 - 1. Jefferson and Jeffersonianism
 - a. Jefferson was held in high regard for his extensive education, serving for twenty years as the president of the American Philosophical Society, also extensive public career: principal author of the Declaration of Independence, governor of Virginia, ambassador to France, secretary of state under Washington, and vice-president under John Adams.
 - b. However, Jefferson was controversial, as he was the father of his house slave's child, doubted some Christian doctrines, and earnestly supported the French Revolution; also condemned "race-mixing", believed blacks and whites could not live side by side.
 - c. Jeffersonianism's (Jefferson's philosophy in government) key beliefs:
 - i. high taxes, standing armies, and public corruption will destroy American liberty
 - ii. state governments should retain considerable authority to safeguard against tyranny
 - iii. popular liberty needs popular virtue: virtue meant putting public good before private interests and keeping government power under control
 - iv. cities = menace to liberty, those who rely on bosses can have their political opinions influenced, while farmers reflect the most independent, therefore, most virtuous group
 - 2. Jefferson's "Revolution":
 - a. Though his inauguration was described as a revolution, he actually meant to return to the nation's earlier tranquility, before government's drift to despotism.
