AQA English Literature A

- AO1: Articulate informed, personal, creative and relevant responses to literary texts, using associated concepts and terminology, and coherent and accurate written expression.
- AO2: Analyse the ways in which meanings are shaped in literary texts, with particular focus on the structure of texts as a form of shaping.
- AO3: Demonstrate understanding of the significance and influence of the context in which literary texts are written and received.

NB. These 3 AOs are to be treated as equal due to their relative weighting across all areas of assessment.

- AO4: Explore connections across texts and demonstrate understanding of wider genre, theme and historical features/implications.
- AO5: Explore literary texts informed by further debate and different interpretations.

NB. AO4 and 5 have a weighting of 12% across all areas of assessment.
