Check off your knowledge to get ready for the AP® U.S. History Exam by taking a practice test. An AP U.S. History practice exam gives you a sense of what to expect on the real thing and helps you know how well you're doing on your study efforts. Here are some places where you can find an APUSH practice test.

Official APUSH Practice Test

The best, most accurate APUSH practice test, of course, comes from the organization that runs the test itself: The College Board and APUSH. And high quality.

College Board's website has full-length APUSH practice tests. You can download the full test.

College Board has only full-length test College Board offers, they also have other questions available. You'll want to be looking for practice with both types of questions. All of the best resources available from the real APUSH exams have been released for 2015-2016. You can find those here for something more about history under "Source Questions" and "Learning Information." You can find the most recent exams, you can also find sample student responses and the teacher's edition manual. There are also practice guides for how you should use the test and study your time to improve your writing skills with response questions. All in all,
