

7th Grade English Language Arts GATE: Course Syllabus

Mrs. Reed, Room 11

willow.reed@fresnounified.org

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This GATE English Language Arts course is designed as a gateway to high school Honors and Advanced Placement classes and ultimately to college and career readiness. Grade-level standards mastered in English Language Arts will be differentiated for rate, depth, breadth, and difficulty to meet the academic needs of each student as we work with complex texts.

This year will be exciting, because we will be working with the Common Core State Standards for literacy and a new textbook adoption. Critical reading, analytical writing, and critical thinking will be emphasized throughout the curriculum.

We will be using the SpringBoard 7th Grade ELA textbook, published by the College Board. During the year, we will read works of literature, nonfiction, and non-print text. In addition, each student will be expected to read at least 750 pages independently in self-selected texts each quarter, toward the goal of reading one million words this year. This means students should read 20 – 40 minutes EVERY DAY. Independent reading and reading logs will be their primary homework.

Students will be writing in class every day. They will write journals, narratives, expository paragraphs and essays, poetry, short research pieces, and they will complete one two benchmark assessments per quarter. We will focus on proper conventions of written English, sentence complexity, and vocabulary development.

Speaking and listening will also be practiced on a daily basis. Some class activities that will emphasize these skills include presentations, pair-shares, literature circles, grand conversations, Socratic Seminars, jigsaws, author's chair, and skits.

Students should expect rigorous, engaging course work and many opportunities to flex their brains and challenge their intellects. We are going to have a great year in 7th Grade ELA!
