Mapping Agency Ulrike Lorenz-Carl,Martin Rempe,2016-05-13 Despite regionalism having developed into a global phenomenon the European Union EU is still more often than not presented as the role model of regionalism whose institutional designs and norms are adopted by other regional actors and organizations as part of a rather passive downloading process Reaching beyond such a Eurocentric perception Mapping Agency provides an empirically rich African perspective on regionalisms in Sub Saharan Africa It adopts an actor centred approach but departs from a rather simplified understanding of agency as exerting power and instead scrutinizes to what extent actors actually participate in or are excluded from processes of regionalism The value of this volume derives from the inclusion of historical dimensions its open multi actor approach to both formal and informal processes and its comparative perspective within but also beyond Sub Saharan Africa The chapters offer a multifaceted picture of agency beyond disciplinary divides where the EU is one actor amongst many and where local national regional and global state and non state actors shape and sometimes break processes of regionalisms in Sub Saharan Africa Afghanistan, Pakistan and Strategic Change Joachim Krause, Charles King Mallory, IV, 2014-01-03 The region encompassing Afghanistan and Pakistan Af Pak region is undergoing a fundamental strategic change This book analyses the nature of this strategic change in order to seek possible future scenarios and to examine policy options It also undertakes a critical review of the basic elements of the Western strategic approach towards dealing with regional conflicts in all parts of the world with special emphasis on the Af Pak region Dealing with the political developments in one of the most volatile regions in the world Afghanistan and Pakistan the volume focuses on Western strategic concerns The withdrawal of ISAF by 2014 will change the overall political setting and the work addresses the challenges that will result for Western policymakers thereafter It examines the cases of Afghanistan and Pakistan separately and also looks at the broader region and tries to identify different outcomes This book will be of much interest to students of Central and South Asian politics strategic studies foreign policy and security studies generally

India's National Security Satish Kumar, 2015-08-12 India's National Security Annual Review 2013 comprehensively analyses India's engagement with major world powers and immediate neighbours in a complex global security environment It examines India's response to internal and external threats its foreign policy as well as measures taken for strengthening its economic security Islam and Statecraft Jon Hoffman, 2025-01-23 Instead of religion influencing political outcomes this analysis examines how politics influences religious outcomes Dominant analyses examining the utilization of religion as a tool of statecraft in the Middle East remain overwhelmingly fixated on how Islam influences the foreign policies of different state actors not how political considerations often influence the forms Islam assumes and how religion itself is often molded according to strategic considerations of political elites That Islam due to its unique or exceptional relationship with politics drives political outcomes at the international level in the Middle East is a myth this book shatters by demonstrating how the political considerations of ruling elites specifically the intersection of domestic and foreign threats influence and constrain the kinds of religious soft power strategies adopted by states in the region This book develops a comprehensive analytical framework for the notion of religious soft power capable of incorporating power based identity based and ideational variables to examine how states couple religion with their broader foreign policy conduct This framework is applied to the Middle East through the specific examination of three countries Saudi Arabia Qatar and the United Arab Emirates in the period following the Arab Uprisings to demonstrate how specific religious narratives identities histories and ideologies are constructed by political elites in the Middle East for the advancement of what are inherently political objectives namely the imperatives of regime preservation and power projection ESPN Sports Almanac 2004 Gerry Brown, 2000-12-01 Who's who in the East, 1983 Constitution and List of Members American Society of Civil Engineers, 1933 Proceedings of the American

Adopting the Beat of Term: An Psychological Symphony within Affiliate Summit East 2012

In some sort of eaten by displays and the ceaseless chatter of instant interaction, the melodic beauty and emotional symphony produced by the published word usually diminish in to the background, eclipsed by the constant sound and disturbances that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, set within the pages of Affiliate Summit East 2012 a charming literary prize overflowing with fresh thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a wonderful musician of language, this charming masterpiece conducts visitors on a mental trip, well unraveling the hidden melodies and profound impact resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of the emotional analysis, we will explore the book is main harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing fashion, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
