Short stories

1. All is fair in love and war (Jan van tonder):
 - the story is about Edwill, Helena and Waldemar, and they are in a love triangle.
 - Edwill and Lita have a plan to get Waldemar and Helena away from each other. En die plan kom by Edwill op toe die Afrikaanse onderwyser hulle die storie van Helena van Troje vertel.
 - "In die klas het die Afrikaanse onderwyser hulle eendag die storie van Helena van Troje vertel en van die houtperd waarin soldate weggesteek is sodat hulle die stad onopgemerk kon binnegaan. En daar en dan het Edwill 'n plan gekry: hy sou met Waldemar vriende maak."

Karakters:

- ↘ Helena - Herinner ons aan klassieke karakter Helena van Troje
- ↘ Edwill - Verlief om Helena. Beraam plan om haar hart te wen.
- ↘ Waldemar - aantreklik, goeie rugbyspeler, nie goed met kommunikeer/woorde nie, Helena se kêrel
- ↘ Lita - Edwill se suster. Help Edwill om Helena se hart te wen.

Die aanvangsoomblik is wanneer Edwill besef dat hy verlief is op Helena en dit met sy sussie deel. Ons sien dat die spanning begin bou wanneer Lita beweer dat hulle die Achilleshiel in die verhouding opgespoor het.

insident waar Edwill aanbied om Helena se boeties besig te hou sodat sy meer tyd saam met Waldemar kan deurbring en Helena

Namibian English in Its Multilingual Environment Gerald Stell, 2025-09-01 Already much discussed within the World Englishes research paradigm English in Namibia only began to develop into a dominant lingua franca from 1990 onwards The study's central research questions are How does spoken English vary in Namibia Does it form one variety or several And what is distinctly Namibian about it To answer these questions this study draws on perceptually contextualized speech data collected among young urban Namibian generations It first identifies the historical and contemporary uses of English in Namibia in comparison with other languages The patterns of code switching into which Namibian English is embedded are illustrated based on a corpus of informal multilingual Namibian speech The study then zooms in on its phonetic and grammatical features with particular emphasis on how these features are perceived and socially distributed and whether they represent transfers from native languages or imports from exogenous English varieties The Routledge Handbook of Translanguaging in the Global South Kleber Aparecido da Silva, Leketi Makalela, 2026-01-30 The Routledge Handbook of Translanguaging in the Global South is a groundbreaking exploration of translanguaging as a decolonial contextually rooted and transformative language practice Unlike conventional volumes that center Western frameworks this handbook foregrounds indigenous knowledge systems Southern theories and the socio cultural realities of the Global South It challenges colonial language policies and rigid multilingual paradigms by showcasing how translanguaging can be a driver of educational equity social justice and linguistic inclusion Drawing on case studies from regions such as South Africa Brazil and other postcolonial contexts it provides practical applications for educators policymakers and researchers Readers of this book include scholars in linguistics education sociology and decolonial studies educators and policymakers working in multilingual environments and students exploring multilingual and cross cultural education By offering a blend of theoretical insights and practical tools this book will benefit readers seeking innovative solutions to address linguistic marginalization It will equip them with strategies to implement translanguaging as a core pedagogy promoting epistemic access cognitive justice and inclusive development across education systems in the Global South International Handbook of Mathematical Learning Difficulties Annemarie Fritz, Vitor Geraldi Haase, Pekka Räsänen, 2019-01-30 This comprehensive volume provides teachers researchers and education professionals with cutting edge knowledge developed in the last decades by the educational behavioural and neurosciences integrating cognitive developmental and socioeconomic approaches to deal with the problems children face in learning mathematics The neurocognitive mechanisms and the cognitive processes underlying acquisition of arithmetic abilities and their significance for education have been the subject of intense research in the last few decades but the most part of this research has been conducted in non applied settings and there's still a deep discrepancy between the level of scientific knowledge and its implementation into actual educational settings Now it's time to bring the results from the laboratory to the classroom Apart from bringing the theoretical discussions to educational settings the volume presents a wide range of methods for early detection of children with risks in mathematics learning and strategies to develop effective interventions based on innovative cognitive test instruments It also provides insights to translate research knowledge into public policies in order to address socioeconomic issues And it does so from an international perspective dedicating a whole section to the cultural diversity of mathematics learning difficulties in different parts of the world All of this makes the International Handbook of Mathematical Learning Difficulties an essential tool for those involved in the daily struggle to prepare the future generations to succeed in the global knowledge society

Re-Envisioning and Restructuring Blended Learning for Underprivileged Communities Bosch, Chantelle, Laubscher, Dorothy Joy, Kyei-Blankson, Lydia, 2021-05-14 Challenges in the educational arena are not new phenomena However with the recent outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic researchers and educators have been made even more aware of the need for a paradigm shift in education Blended learning as opposed to fully online learning or traditional face to face teaching has been well researched and has been found to have the potential to provide better educational solutions in challenging contexts These contexts range from pandemic situations where social distancing is the order of the day to financial and time constraints regarding full time study as well as limited physical capacity at institutions Blended learning solutions are often designed for resourceful institutions and cannot be easily implemented in developing countries and in communities where resources are limited Typical issues like connectivity accessibility lack of suitable devices and affordability need to be taken into consideration and in cognizance of blended learning interventions These challenges are often neglected in blended learning research but are critical discussions to be had Re Envisioning and Restructuring Blended Learning for Underprivileged Communities shares how institutions in the developing world and less privileged communities have re imagined and restructured blended education to enhance teaching and learning for underprivileged communities This book aims to address blended learning solutions across institutional program course and activity levels The chapters will cover a variety of learning environments from rural settings to less developed countries and more and explore the programs and courses designed to improve student success and accessibility in diverse student populations This book is ideally intended for teachers administrators teacher educators practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students who are interested in blended learning opportunities in less privileged settings and to underserved and marginalized populations
